

book belonging to the Hospital, kept for that purpose, the name, age, sex, and religion of each and every individual so vaccinated; the part of the body on which the vaccination has been performed; the date, progress, and termination of each and every case.

CHAPTER XIII.

OF THE PENALTY OF RECEIVING ANY FEE OR REWARD.

1. No Governor, officer, or other person connected with the Montreal General Hospital, shall at any time presume, under any pretence whatever, on pain of expulsion, to give to, or take from any tradesman, patient, servant, or any other person or persons, any fee, reward or gratuity of whatever kind, directly or indirectly, for any services done or to be done, or proposed to be done, on account of or relative to the said Hospital, except in the case of Physicians to the Institution, who, for the accommodation of their private patients, may bring them into the pay-wards of the Reid's wing, when it does not interfere with the objects of the Institution.

CHAPTER XIV.

When an ordinary patient dies in the Hospital (if the body is to be interred), the Steward shall give notice thereof to the clergyman to whose congregation or church he or she may belong; and the Porter shall, if necessary, assist the Sexton at the interment. Immigrant paupers of less than twelve months' residence in the country, who die in the Hospital, shall have their funerals defrayed from the money received from the Immigrant funds. With regard to other ordinary patients, the committee of Management are authorised to request the different religious communities to which they may have belonged, to provide for the funerals of such, unless the bodies are otherwise disposed of by law.
