

' had orders to demand an Eclaircissement with respect ' to the last Answer from England, and to return to ' France if those Eclaircissements were not favourable.
 ' They have certainly been otherwise, since your
 ' Court has anticipated his return by your recal.
 ' However it be, Sir, his Majesty hopes that some ' more happy opportunity will produce more effectual ' inclinations to peace; and he has charged me to ' observe to you, that you may assure the King of ' England, that he will always find him disposed to ' renew the Negotiation, and to consent to equitable
 ' conditions, which may establish a firm union between ' the two Crowns.

' The King most sincerely takes part in the marriage
 ' of the King of England; if you will send me
 ' the Letters from his British Majesty, I will remit
 ' them to their Majesties.

' I have the honour to be, &c.

Signed Le Duc de CHOISEUL.'

At the same time M. de Buffy understood at London, that a courier had been dispatched to recal Mr Stanley, he explained himself on that occasion: and after the British Ministry had confirmed the fact, he desired, agreeable to the orders he had received, the necessary passports to return to France.

Thus the Negotiation between the two Crowns has been broken off. They who talk so readily, and upon all occasions, that We must make peace, do not consider, that however well disposed a Sovereign may be for the re-establishment of tranquillity, his desire cannot be effectual, but when it is equally sincere on the part of the other Belligerent Powers; and it will be admitted, on reading this Memorial, that the King has omitted nothing to come to an Accommodation; no one can say, that his Majesty's Allies have occasioned the rupture of the Negotiation. It has been proved, that the war which the King maintains in Westphalia,
