HURON LICENSES SINKING FUNDS HAS ADVANCED

Issued After First of May.

According to the statement of Hon. MUNICIPAL ACCOUNTS

MI. Hanna yesterday afternoon, it is not likely that any licenses will be issued in the County of Finron after May 1, 1914. The minister, however, refused to bind himself to the course to be followed. It was a matter in which the local commissioners had much to say, and he would have to hear their recommendations before making a definite statement. Ordinarily three months was allowed for licensees to close up their business, but this had not followed in the case of Manitoulin. In answer to a question of Allan Studholme, Hon, Jas. Duff stated that in 1912-13, 2640 domestic servants had come into Ontario, and the majority of the use of their roads to transmission lines with the necessary transformer stations. Owing to the were entered into with the municipali-ties of the Beaverton-Cannington dis-trict, and after authorization by the government, contracts for a supply of power to be developed at Wasdell's Talls, on the Severn River, were awarded, and the work allowed to proceed.

Great Advancement.

Under the heading of municipal accounts interesting comparisons are $620,875; net balance of profits in excess of depreciation, from $60,659 to $330,395. The net surplus from operation increased to $451,054. The approximate number of consumers of light is now 63,157, hearly double the number at the end of 1912, while the number of newer consumers now totals. ber of power consumers now totals 2532 as against 1399 at the end of the

There is a possibility that rural communities may gain the privilege of having their tax papers and collections handled thru the mail according to handled thru the mail according to it's just like this: Fifteen years ago a servent girl put $100 in the bank; this the custom now followed in the towns and cities. This is the purport of J. year she withdraws it, and in her innocence imagines her money has earn a ed her $50 in that time. Yet she has unwittingly been swindled out of fier income by the inflation of the dollar. A new set of rich folk have come to Fifth avenue in the last fifteen years and they have made money by thus unconsciously picking the pockets of other people. It means there has been a subtle passing of dollars from one pocket to another. The only ideal dol-lar is one not dependent on something
