TWO GERMANS CAUGHT ON WAY TO PITTSBURG

One Suspected of Being Spy Had Been Let Out on Parole.

Special to The Toronto World.
NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Oct. 21.-While attempting unobserved to brard a passenger train here today and make their exit from Canada, two well-dressed Germans were arrested by G. T. R. Constable Anderson. One told the immigration officers that he was Joseph G. Wolfe, who is suspected of being a German spy and was let out on parole. Wolfe gave his address as 48 Simcoe street, Toronto. His companion said that he was Ernest Neefe, 120 George street, Toronto. Both said that they had been in Canada since May 23, and had been as far west as Calgary. Wolfe is said to be a graduate of a German university, and has a sabre cut across his right cheek. His father is a member of the German Government. The military authorities took charge of the two. Both were apparently bound for Pittsburg.

A 13-roomed house at 149 St. George street, north of Prince Arthur avenue, was put up for auction yesterday by C. J. Townsend. Notwithstanding the fact that a lot 57 x 64 went with it, fact that a lot by x 64 went with it, only eight would-be purchasers appeared. The property belonged to the A S. Irving estate, who had placed a reserve bid of $30,000 upon it. Only two bids were registered, the highest being for $15,000, from J. J. O'Neil. An eight-room, solid brick detached house at 123 Lawton avenue, Deer Park, has been sold to William Ross, former M.P. for South Ontario. A 30-foot lot is included in the purchase price of $8000. Lots Nos. 54 and 56, plan 556, on the west side of Coxwell avenue, have been sold to W. J. Healy of Montreal. The property is 100 x 127 feet 6 inches, and the price was $60 per foot. This property is on the new Gerrard street civic car line. Both of the above sales were put thru by the Saxon Co., Kent

Building. A permit was granted to W. H. Leaccck yesterday for the erection of a three-storey brick apartment house on the north side of Danforth avenue, near Carlaw avenue. The building is to cost in the neighborhood of $16,000. and the main floor will be devoted to stores next week. With a brand new line of stories the clever monologist will strive stories the clever monologist will strive to make his audience forget the high cost of living. Probably the most spectacular diving offering in vaudeville will be offered by that Samoan diving nymph Odiva as the special feature of next week's bill. Odiva has added a troupe of sea lions to her offering. Bert Lamont and his cowboys will offer as the special extra attraction a round-up of mirth and melody. Max and Mabel Ford, formerly of The Four Fords, will provide a clever dancing melange, while Claud and Fanny Usher, well-known in Toronto, will present a comedy dramatic sketch entitled "The Straight Path." Tracey, Stone and Spink, singers, dancers and musicians; the Dunedin Duo, sensational gymnasts and the kinetograph with the latest pictures complete the bill.

THE HIPPODROME

the headline attraction at the Hippodrome next week are a septette of the cleverest musicians in vaudeville. Their offering comprises singing, dancing and feature instrumental selections. The special feature of the bill will be Webb and Burns, two character comedians who have been identified with several successful musical comedies. In the De Leon Models De Lux, the Hippodrome management has provided one of the most elaborate posing offerings in vaudeville. Richard Milloy and Company have a comedy dramatic offering which includes beside much merriment a touch of pathos. Norwood and Hall will tell some new stories and sing a number of songs, while Burns and Lynn are clever singers and graceful dancers. The invisible symphony orchestra and the latest photo plays complete the bill. the headline attraction at the Hippo-

MISS BARSTOW'S RECITAL.

Miss Vera Barstow, one of the foremost lady violinists of the present day, announces a recital to take place on Wednesday evening, November 18, at the Canadian Academy Music Hall. A wellknown Toronto singer will assist. Miss Barstow will be remembered as soloist with the National Chorus last year, when she created a veritable sensation by her remarkable rendition of the difficult Wieniawski "Faust" Fantasy.

"The Taxi Girl Co," the new guard of extravaganza shows, is the attraction at the Star Theatre next week. From all reports the management, Joe Hurtig, has been particularly fortunate in securing the cream of talent and beauty for this popular organization.

Miss Zella Russell, featured feminine member of the Gayety Girls at the Gayety Theatre next week, is said to be a woman out of the ordinary, due to the fact that at the present time Miss Russell is receiving the highest salary ever paid a woman performer in burlesque, and yet she is not satisfied, as she states that she has ambitions that soar above the burlesque stage.

There has been a steady demand for seats for the engagement of Sam Bernard in "The Belle of Bond Street" at the Alexandra, the engagement beginning Monday night, and the popular Thursday and Saturday matinees, attesting to the judgment of the management, in the buyers for those performances. Mr. Bernard has always kept faith with his public, giving us good lively shows, and it is said that his present vehicle both in cast and comedy is up to his standard.

The production which broke every record on Broadway this year in the mo-tion picture category, "Neptune's Daugh-ter," wherein the Universal Film Com-pany presented Miss Annette Kellerman as star, will be seen in its entirety at the Princess Theatre for a run of one week, commending with a metines Mendel. commencing with a matinee Monday afternoon.
