

read it again to the meeting. Having read the question on which the decision of the meeting is to be first given, she shall take the sense of the members by asking for a show of hands for and against it. Any member feeling a doubt as to the correctness of the decision may call a division, which shall be taken by calling over the roll.

16—If a member was not present in the hall and did not hear the question read or put by the presiding officer, she shall not vote on that question.

17—The presiding officer shall have a casting vote when there is a tie.

18—The presiding officer shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the meeting, and in explaining a point of order or procedure, she shall state the rule or authority applicable to the case.
