REV. DR. J. A. WILLIAMS says of this book:—"A book for the times—that deserves, and will secure wide circulation. Logical, healthy, acute and discriminating, it puts the matter in so clear and full a light that no one need be befogged about it. Every young man should read it, and ministers would do well to have a copy for the purpose of lending."

"We have been led on from page to page by the charm of the argument."—Rochester Post Express.

"The whole is arranged in a dialogue form, which gives to the debate a close range effectiveness. Rev. Mr. Lambert is a cool judge and a hard fighter."—Syracuse Christian Advocate.

"The work is recdly written, clear, logical and convincing."—Canadian Presbyterian.

"It is trenchant and incisive."—Christian Guardian.

SOME OPINIONS OF THE PRESS AND OTHERS.

"There is neither Truth, nor Life, nor Argument left in Ingersoll when Father Lambert has done with him."

"It is a masterly refutation of Ingersoll. It should be widely circulated."

"Father Lambert's book is as acceptable to any good Methodist or Baptist as it is to any good Catholic. Successful beyond any of the efforts in that direction heretofore made."

"Father Lambert is an earnest and keen reasoner, and his books should have many readers."
