

- Tiele (P. A.), reference to his opinion as to Barents's course along the coast of Spitzbergen, xxv; shows the chart published by Hondius to have been after a drawing by Barents himself, xxvi
- Time correctly kept by the Dutch during their winter residence, cxv
- Time of day, rude method of determining it, 7
- Torell (Cape), xxv
- Torkildsen (F.), commander of the schooner Alpha, xliii; loses his ship in Kara Bay, ib.
- Train Oil Bay, cxv, 53, 56
- Translation, curious mistakes in, lxxxiii, lxxxviii, cv, clxxii, 12, 32, 33, 39, 55, 79, 166, 182
- Traps set to catch foxes, 125
- Trocknes Cap, see Dry Cape
- Tromp (Admiral), v
- Trampsoe, or Trompsont, an island on the coast of Norway, 46
- Troost (Cape), see Comfort
- Trust (Cape), see Comfort
- Twelfth Night kept by the Dutch in Novaya Zemlya, 133
- Twist Point, 55; see Cape Dispute
- Ugoria, part of the coast of Russia, xciii
- Ugorian Strait, see Yugorsky Shar
- Ulve (Capt. E. A.), sails in the Samson along the W. coast of Novaya Zemlya, xliiii; his track, xlv
- Unekius, see Yacovius
- Unknown Bay, xc, cxxxvii
- Vaigats, or Vaygats Island, lxxvii; proper spelling and meaning of the name, xlv, lxxvii, 27
- Vaigats Strait, first entered by Pet, lxxviii; properly Pet's Strait, ib.; not passable on account of the ice, lxxiv; called by the Dutch the Strait of Nassau, cx; ode on it, cxxiii; see Expeditions
- Valck (Jacob) aids in fitting out the first expedition, cxiii
- Van de Wal (Ernet), see Wal
- Variation, see Compass
- Veer (Gerrit de), see De Veer
- Veroué Ostrov, a name given to Vaigats Island, lxxvi
- Vlamingh (William de), Dutch walrus hunter, xxxix; Witsen's account of his voyage to Novaya Zemlya, ib.; sails in 1664 along its N. coast, xl; rounds the N.E. point, ib.; M. de Jonge's remarks on the voyage, ib.
- Vlie, or Vlieland, 71
- Vogel (Edward), his calculation of the conjunction of the moon and Jupiter, clv; of the longitude of the winter residence of the Dutch in Novaya Zemlya, cxl, 146
- Vos (Hans), barber-surgeon to the third expedition, 193; returns to Amsterdam, 257
- Vos (Pieter Pietersz.), chief boatswain on the third expedition, 191; returns to Amsterdam, 257
- Voyages, see Expeditions
- Vaigats, or Waigatsch, see Vaigats
- Wal (Ernst van de) requests the States General to fit out an expedition in 1611, xxxiv; appointed supercago to the ship De Vos ib.
- Walle (Jan van de) journeys overland to Russia with Brunel, xi; acts as agent to G. van Eyckenberg, ib.; the first Netherlander who visited the White Sea, cii; his dispute with Horsey at the court of Moscow, ib.
- Walrus met with at Novaya Zemlya, 14, 25, 218; description of, 25; one brought to Holland, 39
- Wardhuus, its situation, 39; the ships arrive there on their return from the second expedition, 69
- Warsina, a river of Lapland, Sir Hugh Willoughby perished there, lxxv
- Watchers, two stars in the Little Bear (Ursa Minor), why so named, 62
- Waygats, see Vaigats
- Weyprecht (Lieut.), commands the steamer Togethof in 1872, xxix; fails in rounding Novaya Zemlya, ib.
- Whale seen, 45
- White Island, xli, xl
- White Sea, Dutch commerce established, xi; first entered by Stephen Burrough, lxxvii; crossed by the Dutch in two boats, 241
- Wieringen, an island on the coast of Holland, 79
- Willemsz. (Laurens), one of the crew who returns to Amsterdam, 257
- Willemsz. (Thomas), commands the Mercury, of Enkhuyzen, on the second expedition, cxii
- William, the name of Jackman's ship, see Jackman
- William's Island, cxxxviii
- Willoughby (Sir Hugh) sails on an expedition to the north-east, lxxv; meets with a violent tempest, and is driven into a small haven on the coast of Lapland, where he dies, ib.; discovers Novaya Zemlya, lxxvi; his