HAMILTON GROCER SUEDE BY AGRIEVED SERVANT

Alleges Wrongful Prosecution—Barton Murder Case Has an Irish End.

Hamilton, Jan. 31.—(Special.)—A suit that promises sensational developments was started today by Budinur Protich, a Serbian interpreter, against J. R. O'Neill, a north end grocer, who had the Servian arrested on the charge of attempting to extort money. The Servian charged the grocer with very improper actions.

Detective Groer was in the city today in connection with the Barton murder case, which he said there were no new developments. He is in correspondence with the authorities of London, Ireland and other countries, and is expected to look up the man picked out by H. H. Hines as the man who accompanied the murdered woman across the Atlantic.

There was a small fire tonight at the home of Samuel Yates, 109 North Westmoreland street.

CHEER FOR CLEAN CHEESE

Government Inspection

Dairymen's Associations Will Ask That Inspectors be Appointed to Compel Cleanliness.

Sanitary conditions of cheese factories is a subject which the provincial government is soon to be called upon to look into closely with a view to very necessary improved conditions.

Mr. Farnham, superintendent of the factory, was attended a meeting of the Western Dairymen's Association, and where it was decided to unite with the eastern association to urge upon the government the desirability of appointing qualified inspectors.

The committee chosen by the government is composed of Messrs. J. M. Stratford, J. M. P. G. Barr, the secretary of the association, and G. H. Barr, the secretary of the association.

Mr. Farnham says he is making arrangements with the Dominion department to commence in June for the sanitation of farms growing grasses and other crops.

Mr. Williams turned to Biblical passages, which he interpreted differently.
