WELL PLANNED KIDNAPPING Neighbor Ties Farmer to Bed Post and Steals Wife and Child.

LONDON, April 17.—Three men forced an entrance into the house of Frank Attwood, a young farmer of Lobo Township, at 3 o'clock this morning and after tying him securely to a bedpost, drove away with his wife and three months old child. This is the story Attwood told the police to-day when he swore out a on a charge of kidnapping.

They can resist everything the people make papers as it deserves. The blaim after all rests with the people themselves, who lose their heads under excitement.

"There seem to be only three things that can be done to prevent the recurrence of these fever fits. One is to reduce that pride which every state feels in having enormous military and naval forces—a pride which necessarily draws with it the temptation to use self so heavily to maintain. "The second practical step that may be taken is to make general arbitration treaties and to enlarge their scope by including as many causes of international difference as can possibly be referred to arbitration, or, where the matter is not a strictly legal one, can be made the subject of mediation and conciliation. The great advantage of such treaties is that they interpose delays, and allow the better sense of each nation to subdue its passions.

"The time has come when the lending of money to a belligerent by a neutral state, should be regarded as being as objectionable as the furnishing of powder, shot and shell. It is all wrong to say that powder, lead and shell are contraband, and then to allow the money lenders to furnish the means of buying the things that are forbidden. It is a wrong principle which allows a few money lenders to profit
