Novelty.

A Necessity of the Business.

Sending buyers direct to the centre of manufacture in the largest foreign markets is nothing new with this house. It is not necessary that we should talk about the matter as though it were a novelty. Shoppers know that with our immense business and the prices at which goods are sold buying at first hands is a necessity. Were we not in possession of the ready money and ever alert for the best that is going these things could not be accomplished. But then the wind has been in this direction for years—now we are at the top of retail selling.

Men's and Boys' Hats for Saturday.

Some are distinctively summer hats, though summer is still with us. Others can be worn the year round. All are of the best manufacture—the kind of stock that has given success to the men's hat department. These are the prices for Saturday:

Special Hosiery Lines for Saturday.

You are sure of safe dyes in buying hosiery here. There is not much satisfaction in buying hosiery unless the assortment is large, for there is need of great variety. All these ends are met by this house. The fact of buying in such quantities is one explanation of the unusual selling we are able to do.

ESTATE NOTICES.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS—In the matter of John Henderson & Co. of the City of Kingston, In-Notice is hereby given that the above named insolvents have made an assignment of their estate to me for the benefit of their creditors under the R.S.O. 1887, chapter 124 and amending Acts.

The creditors are notified to meet at my office, McKinnon building, Toronto, on Monday, the 31st day of August, 1896, at 3 o'clock p.m., for the purpose of receiving a statement of their affairs, for the appointing of inspectors, and for the ordering of the affairs of the estate generally. All persons claiming to rank upon the estate of the said insolvents must file their claims, proved by affidavit, with me on or before the 21st day of September, 1896, after which date I will proceed to distribute the assets of the said estate, having regard to those claims only of which I shall then have received notice.
