A STRAIGHT NOTICE TO QUIT!

The Local Government Shown the Open Door.

HARDY HAMMERED, WHITNEY NOT WHACKED.

In Spite of Official Influence the Opposition Prevails.

PATRONS NO LONGER FACTORS.

Only One Haycockite Left in the Ring—Two Ministers Get Their Quietus.

Twenty-Six Seats Redeemed by the Conservatives and Only Eight Gained by Ministerialists—Several of Mr. Whitney's Lieutenants Among the Slain, But the Province is Evidently Aroused as It Has Never Been.

Before and the Hardy Government Must Go.

Up to the latest hour before going to press this morning The World has received satisfactory returns in regard to but 90 out of the 93 constituencies in which elections were held yesterday.

These three comprise the two Algomas and Muskoka. The Telegraph Company closed their report at 11 p.m. at an hour which makes it absolutely impossible to obtain full returns from constituencies which cover such large areas as Muskoka and Algoma.

Mr. Marter is returned by a small majority for his old constituency.

ONTARIO'S PREMIER ELECT.

WITH MR. MARTEE.

For a considerable time after the reports began to come in things looked pretty bad in Mr. Marter's committee rooms at 609 Yonge-street.

It was elected and they cheered when a Liberal got in, and they cheered anyway.

The Conservative standard-bearer has "kribbed" South Waterloo all right.

Prince Edward was always a Grit hive, too!

While we hurry for Wardell in North Westworth, we extend our sympathy to Chauncey Dewey Itrix.

It was Whitney's Waterloo yesterday all right. In fact he carried both Waterloos.

Farwell should have done better than that with his army of Government officials canvassing, stumping and voting for him.

The three Greys are all redeemed. Two Patrons and a Liberal sat for them in the last House.

The two Hamiltons and North Westworth in the south and the three Greys in the north, constitute two nice bouquets for Mr. Whitney.

Loughrin, he of the Hibernal brogue, will no more sit for Nisiting, Lamarche, Conservative, replaces him.

Patron Dynes was barred out in Dub ferin.

Dickenson was too much of an old hand for The Mail and Express man.

The Glangery Scots prefer a Tory Macdonald to a Patron Macpherson.

Mr. Elliott cut Mr. Hardy's majority of four years ago square in two.

M. Y. McLean, probably the most colorful faced man in the House, must give way to the more genial Kilber.

Let Mr. Haycock now betake himself to his haystacks.

Brookville proved a disappointment, as did also London.

"Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown, and many a head without a crown."—Speech of Hon. G. W. Ross.

"A fig for March," said the old cow when February was done. The cow died three days later.

Stouffville cut looks last night in consequence of Mr. Dryden's defeat. We heard 'em through the telephone.

It may have been a Moyer's day for the Conservative candidate in East York, but it was a cold day for the Government in Ontario.

The Hardy majority will be hard-ly a majority.

The Conservatives are mighty, and have almost prevailed.

North Toronto did not require a minister to minister to its necessities.

Every Patron went down but one; sure evidence that the province prefers to know where it is at.

The consciousness of citizenship among the women of the city was evidenced by the numbers of them to be seen in the downtown crowd last night.

Mr. Foy received no heartier congratulations than those of Mr. Beaman. They met at the Albany Club and the Hebrew citizen was evidently overjoyed at what he termed a victory over race and creed lines.

Dr. Spence's campaign literature was deposited with a full irretrievable trust in a committee room on Queen-street west after the frayed ends of the election had been tied up.

Ald. Hallam was a visitor yesterday afternoon at the central Conservative committee rooms and before leaving received a beautiful supply of Tory campaign literature.

HALF OF CANADA STOLEN.

How Franklin Enriched the British Diplomat.

Before the Revolutionary War, Canada included most of the territory now known as Canada and also that now known as Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin.

In 1783, when the British were negotiating for peace with the United States, they met at the Albany Club and the Hebrew citizen was evidently overjoyed at what he termed a victory over race and creed lines.
