

FINANCES.

The largely increased attendance has considerably swelled the ordinary expenses of late years, and the working account, as will be seen from the detailed statement, shows a deficit. As the Deacons' Court, whom we take this opportunity to thank, have increased their grant to $300, for the current year, we hope to stand in a better position in this respect at the beginning of 1893.

PRIZES.

The teachers decided at the beginning of the year that rewards should be given only to Miss Shaw's class for diligence in Mission Collections, and these will be distributed at this meeting.

CONCLUSION.

In external things, then, this has been, through God's grace, a most prosperous year with us. Let us hope that in spiritual things we have not been standing still. Such results, as was remarked at the annual meeting of the congregation, cannot be represented by figures. But we have God's promise that His word will not return unto Him void, and we have faith to believe that the good seed which has been sown will, in His own time and way, bring forth an abundant harvest.

Respectfully submitted.

I. GAMMELL,
