VETERAN BUYER KILLED BY FALL AT HOSPITAL

Richard Galpin Was Believed To Be Too Weak To Walk About.

NO CHANCE TO SAVE HIM

Stumbled Through Window Before Other Patients Could Save Him.

A fall from a second story window at Victoria Hospital Friday morning resulted in the death of Richard Galpin of 1024 Mabel street, an esteemed old esident of the city, a few hours later. He had been in the hospital since June and was thought to be in a weak condition. His physician did not believe him capable of walking. He managed to rise during the night, in spite of his weakness, and to walk around his room. It was while doing this that he stumbled out of the window so suddenly that two other patients in the same oom had no time to take action o call help.

No Inquest Necessary.

Coroner MacLaren was called and after viewing the remains and consulting with the crown attorney decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

Mr. Galpin was the first grain buyer on the local market. Ho was 87 years old and had resided in the city 61 years.

IRISH PICNIC CROWD ESTIMATED AT 20,000

It is estimated that the Irish picnic tracted about 20,000 people, according attracted about 20,000 people, according to revised figures given out by the committee. The figures of the railways show that 12,000 persons were carried over the lines. St. Thomas sent down over 4,000, while London and intermediate stops furnished the balance. It is figured that fully 5,000 motored and 2,000 days. There were more than 000 drove. There were more than 000 motors parked in and around the The success of the picnic was due in large measure to the kindly ent of the press of London," said ber of the committee. "Printer's

MAJOR MURPHY DOING HIS BIT ON A HAY MOWER

Major T. J. Murphy, one of London's leading barristers, has done much for the cause in training officers in the Western University Training Corps. He is not content to be idle on his vacation, however, and in proof of this The Advertiser quotes the following from the Hepworth Progress:

"Major Murphy of London, who has been camping at Sauble Beach, is spending the week on the farm assisting George Eldridge with the having. He may be seen driving a team of horses hitched to a mower in the fields those warmest days, and he is anxious to keep at this work from early in the morning to late at night. The major is as good a Can't Have Private Practice.

"It certainly is awkward," said Dr. Hill. "It cannot have a private pactice, and I must not answer calls which are not infectious cases. Therefore I am really helpless in cases of itness where there is no infectious disease. I have been doing my best to aid those who apply to me for help, although it is really out of my ground. For example, the other day I was called to attend a little boy who had blood-poisoning in the foot. It did not come under my jurisdiction, but out of humanity's sake I attended the case. There really should be some doctor to whom such cases could be referred, and I intend to have the matter discussed the next time the board meets."

Good Concrete With Small Cost, Says Engineer.

CITY FATHERS PLEASED

That City Is Robbed Is Not Borne Out.

"Results count in paving as well as anything else, and the report shows that London is getting good results, equal to the best, possibly. The concrete may not be mixed exactly according to furmala, and may not be theoretically perfect, but it stood the tests, and demonstrates that the people are getting what they are paying for at a less cost than some other cities are paying for."

That was City Engineer Brazier' That was City Engineer Brazier's statement regarding the report of Pro-fessor Marshall, of the School of Prac-tical Science, Toronto, on the concrete laid on Richmond street. "My idea was to get as much paving done in London at as cheap a price as possible," continued Mr. Brazier. "If done in London at as cheap a price as possible," continued Mr. Brazier. "If the price was excessive we would get little paving done, and we need better roads here. I can see no reason why we should pay more for pavements and get little, if any, better results. We could mix concrete and add to the expense, but there is little to be gained by it. We might add 5 per cent to the strength at an additional cost of 25 per cent.

Results Count.

"That would cost the citizens a lot of money more, and the results would be practically the same. The report shows that we are getting the results, and that is what counts, after all. The concrete base we are putting down will stand the pressure, make no mistake about it."

The report of Professor Marshall is considered highly satisfactory at the city hall. It does not bear out the contents of Richmond street are getting robbed on account of poor concrete.
