Skating Next Week. Owing to uncertainty of one night's moderate frost producing fee for to-night sufficiently good for speed skating, and other plans having been made for Friday night, it has been decided to postpone the skating races at the Broadview Rink until next week.

There are already nine entries for the senior, events and nineteen in the junior.

There are already nine entries for the senior events and nineteen in the junior, with several others in sight who have been hanging back because of the uncertainty of the weather. Earle Harvey of Brampton is the only entry from outside of Torouto, altho application was received from two other points for entry forms. The postponement until more settled weather will undoubtedly bring in more entries.
