PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

Patricia Collings in "Tillie." Patricia Collings, who is pleasantly remembered here as the original Pollyanna as seen two seasons ago, will be seen in "Tillie," a four-act comedy presented by Klaw & Erlanger and George C. Tyler. The play is founded on the popular novel by Helen R. Martin. "Tillie," a Mennonite Maid, and the scene is set in a Pennsylvania Dutch country. Just a year ago it was produced at the Henry Miller Theatre in New York, and after enjoying a successful engagement there has been on tour.

"The Royal Vagabond." Beyond all question the supreme musical success of recent years will be presented by Cohan and Harris at the Princess theatre. After one solid year's run at the Cohan and Harris Theatre, New York, with the entire metropolitan company, headed by Robinson Newbold and Virginia O'Brien, in the roles in which they won the most notable personal success, the cast includes Frederic Stanley, Frances Demarest, Louis Simon, Winifred Harris, Grace Daniels, John Goldworthy, Charles Pierre, Roger Gray, Gladys Zail, Charles Wayne, Marjorie Whitford, Irving Rose, Lou Lockert, Walter Paine and others. With Mary Eaton, the dainty dancing divinity, whose artistic terpsichorean creations have scored the most notable success in many years. Seats are now on sale for all performances.

"Take It From Me." The strange tale of a youth who sought to fail and failed to fail through the intercession of a girl and love, but instead succeeded and won the girl, is the romance thru which Will R. Anderson wrote a haunting series of melodies, and altogether they make a musical comedy. "Take It From Me" has now passed the trial stage thru which it was passing when previously presented at the Royal Alexandra Theatre a little over a year ago, for it returns to this same theatre after a five month run at the 14th Street Theatre, New York, and also a five months' run at the Studebaker Theatre, Chicago, where it broke all theatrical records for capacity houses. The cast is exceptionally and unusually well balanced, many of the faces seen equally with the original production again being in their old roles. Fred Hill, the elongated comedian; Douglass Leavitt, the rotund comic; Alice Hills, the passionate spinster; while Zoe Barnum, the elegant comedienne; and others to be seen will be the "movie-vamp," Helen Gardner, Arline Gardner, Harry Burnham, William Balfour, Edgar Gardner, Ruth Lovell, and the beautiful "Chas. Homer and the beautiful."

"The Attraction at the Royal Alexandra." The attraction at the Royal Alexandra for the week beginning Monday night, Feb. 16, will be the "Movie-vamp," Helen Gardner, Arline Gardner, Harry Burnham, William Balfour, Edgar Gardner, Ruth Lovell, and the beautiful "Chas. Homer and the beautiful."

Crystal comedy singers and dancers. Loew's Timely Topics and the Mutt and Jeff cartoons will also be shown. Draw and Campbell's Liberty Girls Co. The Liberty Girls Co., with Jack Conway, will be the attraction next week at the Regent Theatre. The big spectacle, entitled "Manless Isle," written and staged by Mr. Conway, is a production in two acts and ten scenes leading the audience from a ball room thru various places in Europe to the Isle of Neverness, a mythical spot in the tropics, said to be fifty thousand miles from any sky. The cast supporting Jack Conway is composed of the best talent known to the theatre. Among them being James J. Collins, the Plant, Harold Boyd, Thomas O'Brien, James Oliver, Joseph Dunn and others. Monica Redmond, Helene Sturdt, and Pauline Haver are the female contingent. The big vaudeville feature will be presented by Mae Runaway Four, late with Head over Heels Co., the Liberty Girls Challenge Beauty Contest, twenty in number, will introduce many novel acts and late song hits.

"Monte Carlo Girls." The attraction at the Star Theatre next week in the famous "Monte Carlo Girls" will be the pretentious burlesque offering of entertainment is Frank Ragsdale, the acrobatic tramp comedian who is ably assisted by Fred Rosh, an eccentric character of a decidedly humorous type. Sarah Hyatt, the silver voiced prima donna, leads the female cast, closely followed by Little Grace Tremont, a soubrette full of pep. Then there is Alberta Fowler and Dot Morton. John Huggins in a dark character and a dance specialist is also in the cast. Besides twenty-five other able performers including Earl Hall and Jake Kennedy. Four scenes and two laughable acts of the most beautiful girls seen on any stage.

"Male and Female" Coming. No delusions as to the public's tastes in motion pictures are entertained by Cecil B. DeMille, whose latest Paramount-Artcraft picture, "Male and Female," will be shown for one week only at the Regent Theatre commencing next Monday. This is the screen version of Sir James M. Barrie's "The Admirable Crichton" and was first shown in Toronto at a private performance, which was attended by many civic and provincial officials and citizens representative of the business and professional life of the city. On that occasion "Male and Female" was declared to be the most wonderful motion picture production that many in the audience had ever seen and, indeed, so much comment was heard that the news quickly spread thru the city with the result that whereas there were formerly a few, there are now many thousands who are determined to see wherein this picture excels any other at the earliest opportunity. The story of Alhambra Theatre How a modest girl with a captivating smile lured a Manhattan insurance Company into a workshop of love-lorn wretches forms the basis of "A Virtuous Vamp," featuring Constance Talmadge at the Alhambra Theatre. As Nellie Jones, Miss Talmadge is seen in the role of a girl who found it convenient to cast aside her aristocratic name of Gwendolyn Diana Beaufort Armitage in order to gain a position in the insurance office of a bachelor who hated to mix social affairs with business. Everything runs smoothly until a Broadway shimmy dancer enters the office for a $50,000 policy on her shoulders. The star decides to stop being a cabaret, where he makes the beginning of a bachelor, and a vaudeville attempts to win the only man who refuses to be captivated by her "innocent wiles."

Mary Pickford at Strand. Dear little "Pollyanna" will never forget the marvelous play girl as portrayed with matchless charm by Mary Pickford. She is attracting many thousands this week to the Strand Theatre, where she is dispensing her wonderful cornucopia of happiness under all circumstances. The story grips the heart. It makes sunshine for the gloomiest. Young and old alike find rare delight in the picture which is Mary Pickford's greatest and best. Only once in a long, long while—as when a blue moon's a-shining—do we have the privilege of seeing anything so glad, so sweet, so altogether beautiful. It is magical in invoking tears and laughter. "Pollyanna" is showing at the Strand at 11.45, 1.45, 4.45 and 9.45.

Corinne Griffith at Madison. Wisconsin Corinne Griffith, in "Human Collateral," which will be shown at the Madison Theatre today and for the balance of this week, has the part of a girl who is virtually sold in marriage to a banker and is then abducted by a dramatic and closes with a climax full of surprises.

The first cinematograph performance ever given in the house of commons in England took place on Aug. 12 of last year.

THIN, NERVOUS PEOPLE NEED BITRO-PHOSPHATE

What It Is and How It Increases Weight, Strength and Nerve Force In Two Weeks' Time in Many Instances.

SHOULD BE PRESCRIBED BY EVERY DOCTOR AND USED IN EVERY HOSPITAL.

Says Editor of "Physicians' Who's Who."

Take pain bitro-phosphate is the advice of physicians to thin, delicate nervous people who lack energy and nerve force, and there seems to be ample proof of the efficacy of this preparation in the National Standard Dispensary. Clinically tested in St. Catherine's Hospital, N. Y. C., showed that two patients gained in weight 25 and 27 pounds respectively, through the administration of this organic phosphate; both patients claim they have not felt as strong and well for the past twelve years.

Physicians and hospitals everywhere are now recognizing its merit by its use in increasing quantities. Frederick Cole, M.D., editor of New York Physician's "Who's Who," says: "Bitro-Phosphate should be prescribed by every doctor and used in every hospital to increase strength and nerve force and to enrich the blood."

Joseph D. Harrigan, former visiting specialist to North Eastern Dispensary, says: "For those who are weak, thin, nervous, anemic, or run-down, take a nutritious, unadulterated substance such as bitro-phosphate and you will soon see some astonishing results in the increase of nerve energy, strength of body and mind and power of endurance."

Bitro-Phosphate is made entirely of the organic phosphate compound referred to in the National Standard Dispensary as being an excellent tonic and nerve treatment of neurasthenia. The standard of excellence, strength and purity of its substance is beyond question, for every bitro-phosphate tablet is manufactured in strict accordance with the U. S. Pharmacopoeia test requirements. Bitro-Phosphate is therefore not a patent medicine and should not be confused with any of the secret nostrums, so-called tonics or widely advertised "cure-alls."

CAUTION!—Although Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, owing to its remarkable flesh growing properties it should not be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.
