CITY HALL NOTES

There will be a tough fight at the board of contro! "inaugural" this morning for the post of vice-chairman of the tourd and which carries with it the ing for the post of vice-chairman of the board and which carries with it the privileges of deputy-mayor. Last year Controller Maguire was elected to the cflice and he is the favorite in the present competition. It is said Controller Cameron is a candidate for the post, and he will undoubtedly receive the support of Controller Ramsden, whilst the mayor will throw his vote Maguirewards. The decision will rest with Controller Gibbons, and just how his vote will be cast will not be known until after the meeting today.

Controller Ramsden is after the York Highways Commission, and wants a report on the amount of the city's contribution and the quality of the work carried out on the pavements. The controller is of the opinion that expenditure is not justified on the class of pavement laid which, he says, is aiready showing the effects of traffic in many places. The city during the past four years has contributed as follows: 1916, $54,568: 1917, $54,568: 1918, $54,568: 1919, $86,000. Total $249,704.

The board of control will this morning consider the bill drafted by the city solicitor for the taking over of the T.S.R. next year. The bill comprises the legislation necessary for acquiring the railway and operating it by a commission to be appointed by the council. The bill also includes provision for the raising of the necessary money for exten-

Nineteen busy members of the council have succeeded in framing ho less than 68 notices of motion. The board of control will allocate these precious legislative suggestions to the various committees or departments concerned, and then for the majority—good day.

Attorney-General Raney and the mayor are to hold a conference in reference to police commission matters and the court houses. The mayor says if the government want to take over and manage the police force and the cost of erecting and maintaining the courts and salaries, let them do so and pay for it. But in these days of unrest, deckares the mayor, it is no time to change the personnel of the police commission. The constitution of the commission, the mayor considers, is a proper one for the present. If any one wants a state of affairs here like they had in Winnipeg, they had better start changing the commission at once.

QUEBEC TO HAVE WINTER CARNIVAL.

The Mayor of Quebec and Citizens' Committee on Winter Sports have arranged a most attractive programme for the winter sports' season in the ancient capital. From January 17, when the season opens, until February 17, when it officially closes, every week-end is literally crammed with sporting events of much interest.

The mayor has complained to Ottawa that it is unfair to leave Toronto with only 100 garrisoned troops. It is thought likely that a regiment of P.P.C.L.I. may be brought back here shortly.

The organizations which we, as citizens, are asked to support, have had to answer "who are you" to the Budget Committee, composed of very responsible and representative men. The raising of this halfmillion dollars rests upon us as a solemn and heavy obligation. Our Queen City, moving forward marvellously in industry and population, must hold the pace in caring for the needy. These social welfare agencies and charitable societies are the guarantee which the heart of Toronto gives to her citizens that some of the inequalities will be erased in the grinding struggle for existence.

When they were finally asked Through them the spirit of Toronto leaps to give youth a fair start, to nurse the stricken, and to raise those who fall out of breath in the race. With your help our beloved city battles to banish plagues, starvation, ignorance and crime from her house.
