The Toronto General Trusts Corporation, acting for the executors of the McDonnell estate, has sold to Douglas Ponton all the vacant land in the Goodblatt subdivision, lying between the Sunnyside orphanage and Indian road and between the G. T. R. tracks and Garden avenue. The transfer involves over 3000 feet frontage and the sale price was about $100,000. This property was subdivided some years ago and after about 50 lots had been sold and houses erected on them the property fell into the hands of the executors. The sale was made as a result of the foreclosure proceedings.

Plans are being prepared for the remodeling of the Hoberlin building at the southeast corner of Yonge and Richmond, into an office building with an entrance on Richmond street. Mr. A. M. Hoberlin has secured under long lease, three and a half floors of the new building now being erected by Messrs. Volles and Rottenburg at 305-378 West Adelaide street, for factory space and his store will remain as at present on Yonge street. The new Adelaide street building will be known as the Hoberlin building. This building will front 120 feet on Adelaide and go back 145 feet to a lane. It is understood the Allen theatre interests will occupy the upper floors of this building.

Tenants on the ground floor will not be disturbed. The property is leasehold, the land belonging to the Leslie estates. It fronts 75 feet on Yonge and goes back on Richmond 145 feet.

The Masco Company, manufacturers and dealers in motors and other electric appliances, has purchased, for $50,000, the three-story and basement building at 73 East Richmond street. This building suits the Masco building on Queen street. The purchasing firm will occupy most of the space as the lease expires. Mr. George Holmes, of Owen Sound, was the building at 105-107 Jarvis street for $12,000 and will immediately erect on this site a modern four-story warehouse and factory building. The vendor was W. A. Sweeney.
