There was also a Conservative candidate-Major Kennedy, who, in a three-corner fight that Mr. Doherty forced upon us, was elected. But Mr. Doherty, after many years of absence in New Brunswick, suggested to the United Farmers of Peel that he was a United Farmer. Those who knew him in Peel rejected him upon a vote, under which he polled an approximate one-fifth of the votes of the woters in the constituency.

Bailey, Cowan and Betelle Davis presented a smart offering of original songs and dances, most of them from the pen or pens of the team. Among the song numbers was "Pals," which bids fair to sustain the reputation of the composers Eddie Buzzell and Peggy Parker gave a cheerful message to the audience in "A Will and a Way," which was much appreciated.

Other amusing items of an exceptional bill were Regal and Mack in "The Book Shop"; Cahill and Romine in "A Comedy Mixup"; Will Ferry, "The Frog"; Joe Cook, the one man vaudeville show; Lambs' Mannikins and The Dippy Dentist comedy film. Every act was thoroly enjoyed.

Bill in Vaudeville.

With Tom Mix in "The Feud," a stirring story of western life and love, the Hippodrome program for the week gets a good start. The dashing hero of popular fiction is well acted by the debonair Tom Mix with all the fervor of youth and the exhilaration of western life. There is a good love element in story, which has a satisfying ending. A sketch with a good bit of humor and some interesting developments is the offering of the Robert Henry Hodge Company. Romain, Powers and Delame have an act, "The Midnight Marauders," in which the possibilities for clever acting are well taken advantage of.

for those who demand something in the musical line that does not suggest, "Let's Go" is pleasing and interesting. The producers have interpolated a series of musical numbers that are tuneful and catchy, and with the excellent rendition by principals of special ability "Let's to" is good value in amusement and especially at the popular scale of prices that prevail at the Grand.

While the cast is not a large one numerically the various songs are put over with a dash and vim that stamps the organization with talent rarely found in the ordinary musical show, Gertrude Hutcheson is a dainty little prima donna and gives a delightful performance. Miss Hutcheson will be remembered for her clever work in "The Chocolate Soldier." "The Merry Widow," and as one of the leading soloists with the Boston Grand Opera Company. She has the support of an able young English comedian, H. D. Ormond, and a talented dramatic star, Miss Rochite, who portrays the role of the neglected wife; William Chatterton, as a stupid detective, blunders into many amusing situations trying to capture the "desperate criminals."

In all the musical numbers there is an absence of "jazz" and for this reason alone "Let's Go" is in a class by itself. Among the catchy song hits are "Hello, Friends," "Powder Puff." and "Pretty Little Rainbow." The production in scenery and costuming is in good taste, and altogether "Let's Go"

NEW MONTREAL STRIKES INVOLVE OVER 800 MEN

Fred Gerhardy's "Mischief Makers" opened before a capacity audience at the Star Theatpe yesterday afternoon. The show is full of life and pep from the time the curtain going up in the opening song number gives the "let's go" sign. The paprika chorus of 20 brightly costumed singing and dancing ponies is one of the best choruses ever assembled on the Star stage. Every one of the girls can sing and they dance with plenty of action. A specialty introducing several of the members of the chorus in singing and dancing numbers proved a big hit with the boys in the gallery. Joe Wilton and Joe Freed are two funny comedians and their funny sayings and excentric antics cause much merriment during the show.

Mabel Clark, the leading lady, has a good clear voice and her songs have a pleasing musical sway to 'them. Bonnie Lloyd and Julia Morgan are other prominent members of the company who are seen to good advantage. The stage settings and costumes are of the latest design and taking the show all round it is an attraction that the patrons can not afford to miss seeing.

Montreal, Feb. 2.—Two strikes occurred here this morning, involving some $25 men. These are the employes of waterproof making establishments and employes of architectural iron working firms.
