PAPKE-STANTON BOUT OFF. BOSTON, Nov. 16—The match between Billy Papke and Walter Stanton, which was scheduled for Monday night at the Cooper A. C. was called off last night by James J. Buckley, manager of Stanton. The latter took a chill after his battle with Johnny Carroll at New York the other night and continued to grow worse, and last night was in danger of pne monia. President Pierce of the Cooper C., tried to secure a suitable substitute, but failed, and so made a match between Dave Deshler of Cambridge and Rouse O'Brien for Wednesday night.
