SURPRISES TONIGHT

Fantastic Production, a Bewildering of Beauty—News Pictures, Magazine Subjects and Three Jolly Songsters

Imperial Theatre makes a radical departure from its usual run of pictorial entertainment tonight in the instance of its leading feature, by presenting the truly exquisite Bluebird production "The Crippled Hand," a modern fantasy. Much praise is due the fertile brain that conceived this combination present day drama and fairy-tale. Of all motion pictures thrown on the Imperial's screen it is doubtful indeed if anything has presented the dream of loveliness that characterizes tonight's picture. While many people will attend the show today and tomorrow as a mere matter of habit or routine, they will leave the theatre amazed and delighted with what they saw. "The Crippled Hand" sets a new standard in sumptuous stage appointments, trick photography, fairland conception and real life presentations. The scene in Elfin groves, in great Broadway theatre, when the six white mice and pumpkin are converted into beautiful white horses and royal coaches, the little gnomes and then back to real life—the chorus girls in the big musical extravaganza. All these things will cause wonderment and pleasure and the management of Imperial Theatre sincerely promises its patrons a rare and relaxing treat.

There will be the usual Animated Weekly filled with new pictures, the regular weekly issue of magazine pictures, under the general heading Real Life, and Keefe, Langton & White in their splendid budget of popular song hits and comedy. On Thursday this trio of singers will give a complete change of programme so that those attending the programme the latter part of the week will not have to listen to repeat numbers.

THE CHARGE OF THE FUN BRIGADE AT CITY
CORNET BAND FAIR

Pleasure undiminished, that's what will characterize a visit to the City Cornet Band Fair at St. Andrew's Park. It's the best yet. 16th Band will furnish music tonight. Make a point to be there and greet the members of the 16th Battalion, Rotary Night Thursday.

DON'T MISS SECOND EPISODE OF "THE SHIELDING SHADOW"

The showing of the second chapter of Pathé's great series, "The Shielding Shadow," will be given at the Unique tonight. See it sure. Other features and orchestra.

SEE THE YELLOW MENACE

"The Plot of a Demon" is the striking title of a very powerful, gripping, number four, in the Gem's greatest series, "The Yellow Menace." It is to be shown tonight and tomorrow together with a three act play, "The Market of Chance," featuring King Ruggert, and a dandy comedy—a big diversified bill.

BOY SCOUTS' ATTENTION!

In tonight's programme at Imperial Theatre and also on Thursday, one whole reel of pictures will be devoted to Boy Scouts at work and play. It is one of the most interesting features of its kind ever offered in a screen production, and was photographed at the expense of time and money by the Gaiety Co. of America, a branch of the great French concern. At the present time there are approximately 200,000 youths and boys affiliated with the Boy Scout movement, many of whom are doing active service in the present great war. The pictures being shown at the Imperial were taken at the annual encampment at Glen Cove, L. I., this summer where the lads are busy, and they march at their various scout activities and to make the picture especially interesting, a pretty little story is introduced.

John Bellevue of Moncton, passed away on Sunday afternoon at his home in Bellevue's Village, Westmorland county, eighty-seven years ago and gave something like this: "I was born in 1829, and I am able to do my housework, which I had not done for three months before taking Vinol."—Mrs. Y. Chicago, Oct. 11.—Announcement that the British government had purchased 18,500,000 bushels of wheat in Australia acted as a depressing influence today on wheat prices here. Severe Rheumatic
Pains Disappear

Rheumatism depends on an acid which flows in the blood, affecting the muscles and joints, producing inflammation, stiffness and pain. This acid gets into the blood through some defect in the digestive processes, and remains there because the liver, kidneys and skin are too torpid to carry it off.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old-time blood tonic, is very successful in the treatment of rheumatism. It acts directly, with purifying effect, on the blood, and through the blood on the liver, kidneys and skin, which it stimulates, and at the same time it improves the digestion.

Get Hood's Sarsaparilla today. Sold by all druggists.

THE V.C. WON BY
NEW BRUNSWICKER

A New Brunswicker has won the Victoria Cross, the highest praise that a grateful nation can bestow upon a soldier. The proud winner is Leonard C. Hammond, son of A. B. Hammond, a native of Kingsclear, York county, and at one time an extensive lumber operator at St. Leonard's, N.B. He is the first man from this province to win the much coveted honor on the field of battle in this war. He is a cousin of J. W. Hammond, United States consular agent in Fredericton and was a member of the American Field Ambulance Corps.

Private Hammond went to the front in January, 1916, with the American Ambulance Corps and is still on the firing line. He was residing in San Francisco, with his father, who is one of the largest lumber operators on the Pacific coast. He left New Brunswick in 1914 Private Hammond determined to go to the front with the American Ambulance that was being formed at that time. He was through the siege at Verdun and performed many gallant deeds with his corps, being mentioned in the despatches on several occasions.

The father of the winner of this great honor is well known all along the St. John river. He left New Brunswick in 1906, selling his farm in Kingsclear, and after spending some years at St. Leonard's, he came to the Pacific Coast. He is now a multi-millionaire.

What's the Value of Your Life?

Every man's life has a certain definite commercial value based upon the income he is able to earn.

What is the value of your life? Let us assume it to be $15,000. This amount at 6% will produce a yearly income of $900. So you see $15,000 is not an excessive valuation.

Now, if you owned a building worth $15,000, would you insure it to indemnify yourself against its loss by fire? Of course, you would. And yet the building may never burn.

But have you taken the same precaution to protect your dependents against the loss they would sustain in the cutting off of your life by death? And sooner or later that is sure to happen.

If your life is not insured for the value you place upon it, write to-day for our free booklet "The Creation of an Estate." Tomorrow you may be uninsurable.
