FORMER MAYOR WRITES ABOUT BUILDING LAW

Point Re No. 1 Fire District Goes to Committee

A suggestion that some provision be made in the new building code to protect the owners of wooden buildings in Fire District No. 1 was sent to the city council by G. Fred Fisher, a former Mayor, and by the committee of the whole passed on to the by-law committee this morning. Mr. Fisher stated that under the present law owners of wooden buildings in this district were prohibited from repairing them in case of fire doing more than 50 per cent. damage and therefore the owners could not insure for more than half valuation. This he asserted was a hardship and should be remedied.

Commissioner Harding said he had already written to Mr. Fisher that this matter was cared for in the new by-law, and he moved the letter be filed.

Commissioner Bullock suggested that it be sent to the by-law committee for their consideration.

Commissioner Frink said this seemed to him to be an important matter and should be given thought by the by-law committee.

Commissioner Harding then changed his motion to read that the letter be referred to the by-law committee and this passed.

CHILDREN'S AID AGENT HOME AGAIN

Rev. George Scott Speaks of Conditions He Found in Old Country

Rugged and tanned and much improved in health, Rev. George Scott, agent for the Children's Aid Society, arrived in Saint John this morning via Montreal, after a two month's holiday in England and Scotland. While away he visited his old home in Arbroath, Scotland, and also visited his brothers, James V. Scott, of London. Rev. Mr. Scott arrived in London just at the outbreak of the recent strike at that all had been good natured during the time of trouble. There had never, in his opinion, been any question as to the outcome.

LIQUOR QUESTION

While in London, Rev. Mr. Scott said he had seen only one person under the influence of liquor. There were several reasons why there was less drinking, he said. Restricted hours for public houses was one cause. The public houses there opened about 11 or 11:30 o'clock in the morning, closed at 2 p. m. and were opened again from 6 until 9 in the evening. Another reason for less drinking was the allotment plan, under which working men were rented gardens in various parts of the city, on which they could raise market produce, thus occupying their idle time and also getting some revenue from the sale of vegetables and some for their own table. The third reason was that the liquor was of a poorer quality than in former days, according to reports Mr. Scott received.

While trade was not good over there at the present time, Rev. Mr. Scott said that should the coal strike be ended soon, trade would quickly pick up. Following his visit to London, he visited the Highlands, making motor trips to many places of interest.

AUTO OFFICIAL HAS NORTH SHORE TRIP

Inspector G. L. Inghram Finds Roads of Province Good

George L. Inghram, Provincial Inspector of Taxation, returned to the city on Saturday evening, following an 800-mile trip to the North Shore. He left Saint John on last Monday and traveled, via Moncton, through Kent county to Campbellton. He also visited the Carquet Shore. He came home from Campbellton, via Fredericton, leaving Chatham on Saturday morning and arriving in Saint John on the same evening.

He said that the roads were in good condition, with the exception of a few frost holes. His trip was in connection with the regulation and supervision of automobile traffic and it was said that he would have certain recommendations to make to the Minister of Public Works, Hon. D. W. Stewart, in regard to speeding.

MOTORIST DISPLEASED

An automobile tourist here from New Hampshire, on Saturday, following a trip through Nova Scotia, was somewhat indignant regarding the treatment he said he had received while in Digby. He was held by the chief of police there on a charge of speeding.

The motorist said that he was going about 18 miles an hour while the officer said the rate was at least 20 miles. As the hour was late and no magistrate available at the moment, the visitor was told that he would either have to spend the night in jail or put up a deposit of $25 for his appearance in the morning. He put up a deposit of $25 for his appearance in the morning. He put up the deposit and then decided to wait and see what the outcome would be. When he appeared in court in the morning he was told that the action of the chief would have to be upheld and he was fined $25. It was said that he was taking the matter up with the automobile association here.
