THE PERIOD OF PRICE TRANSITION IS HERE NOW

Geo. T. Creary is revising all Prices and is making a Great Mid-Winter Clearance of Men's Wear, Starting on Friday.

"For the whole month of February we are working to meet the transition period from which the readjustment of affairs must come," said Geo. Creary, in his preparation of bargains for Semi-ready great mid-winter sale for men. "It may be that we will have to devote more than a month to the clearance, but we have decided to pocket a loss and be as cheerful about it as was Tom Sawyer's cat when he gave it a dose of Pain Killer. Somebody must lose, and the newspapers decided a few months ago that it should be the merchants, the while they raised their advertising rates. We will sell many garments for less than they cost us — though they are worth more today than what we paid for them."

"Starting on Friday morning, bright and early, we expect to launch the greatest sale of high-class merchandise for men ever known in St. John. It is not 48-by-night sale of mixed up bankrupt goods that are without genealogy or reputation, but a sale of the best merchandise from the leading makers of repute in Canada."

The bride was becomingly gowned in navy blue tricot and drape satin with hat to match. Many beautiful gifts were received testifying to the popularity of the bride and groom, among which were a chest of silver from the groom's parents and a Hudson seal coat to the bride the gift of the bride's father and brother. Many other gifts were received of silver, cut glass and china. Mr. and Mrs. Hobart have the best wishes of a host of friends. They left last evening on a trip through Maine. On their return they will reside in Randolph.

The marriage of Gordon C. Garnett, of West St. John, son of David Garnett, of Garnett's Settlement (N. J. H. Jenner, M. A., pastor of the Charlotte street Baptist church. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served to the large number of guests which included the immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Garnett will make their home in West St. John and have the best wishes of many friends for the future happiness. SMALLER PASSENGER SHIPS.

(Toronto Globe.)

The announcement that the International Mercantile Marine Company has abandoned the construction of the large passenger ship Homeric with a register of 28,000 to 40,000 tons, indicates a tendency toward smaller ships on the Atlantic.

The Doric, which succeeds her in the White Star building programme, will have about 16,000 tons. The explanation of P. A. S. Franklin, president of the company, is that a small vessel can be operated to better advantage than a monster, that a great part of the first cost lay in the passenger fittings, and that there is a point beyond which it is prohibitive.

The larger ships built before the war might be operated with financial success because their cost was proportionately less than it would be now, but he believed that smaller ships would continue to be built, at least until cost of construction are materially reduced.

The great majority of passengers would undoubtedly prefer comfort on a smaller boat even if it took a day or two longer to cross the Atlantic. The course of events justifies the prediction made by the late Sir William Van Horne in his speech at the Garrison Club, Quebec, a few years ago, that the favorite Atlantic vessel would be ultimately of moderate size and speed, combined with the highest degree of safety and comfort, and even luxury.

Robin Hood Flour

"Well worth the slight extra cost"

No other flour milled in Canada has the strength, the volume, the uniformity and nutrition that is contained in "ROBIN HOOD." It is a "thirsty" flour, it takes more water and consequently yields more loaves to the bag.

The extra nutrition and staying power which characterize the hard spring western wheat makes the ROBIN HOOD loaf the highest in food value.

Read this guarantee—it goes in every bag.

Our "MONEY BACK" Guarantee—Robin Hood Flour is guaranteed to give you better satisfaction than any other flour milled in Canada.
