

COMING, "RICHARD THE GREAT"

One of the cleverest Monkey performers ever seen on a local stage will be at the Opera House tomorrow for mid-week bill.

OPERA SEASON HERE
WILL BE BRILLIANT

Large Number of Season Subscriptions and Eagerness for Opening of Public Sale Tuesday.

The sale of seats for individual nights of the grand opera season, May 10 to 18, starts Tuesday forenoon at the Imperial box office. Already a large number have taken advantage of the season booking plan and have arranged their seating for the complete list of operas, a fact which ensures considerable social brilliancy to the week of music as well.

This year's season of grand opera will quite eclipse that of 1919, the inaugural year, for several reasons. Since last June when the Boston English Opera Co. appeared here, the company has been strengthened by the addition of such notable performers as Arthur Brainerd, tenor; Alice May Carley, contralto; Helena Morille, soprano; Phil Fain, baritone; Lynn Griffin, lyric tenor, and others. These artists in conjunction with Messrs. Sheehan, Descom, Goltz and Northway of last season, and Miss Hazel Eiden, Elaine DeSelle, May Barrow et al, virtually create a double company of stars, leaving no weak spot in any bill at any time.

Furthermore, the choral strength of the aggregation has been built up to meet the strengthening of the principal roles and twenty instrumentalists will play. Arthur Dunham, noted organ virtuoso, and Chicago Philharmonic conductor, will wield the baton. Two and a half carloads of scenery and equipment will be necessary to stage the various operas, where last season the impedimenta did not amount to a carload.

Just to be a bit prophetic, it is safe to predict that St. John will go in ecstasies over DeKore's "Robin Hood" the opening night. This assumption prompts the repeat Thursday and again Saturday afternoon. The famous double bill on Tuesday—Cavalleria and Pagliacci—is to be another winner. Carmen on Wednesday is sure of a crowd—people who like lively romantic story and music—and Friday's "The Tales of Hoffman" will be a novelty here, sweet, dainty and luring. Saturday night "Rigoletto" will be a masterpiece (Verdi) with a wonderful cast and that famous quartette will receive masterly treatment. The mid-week matinee, "Bohemian Girl," a household treat; Saturday's matinee, Robin Hood, as said before, is a safe bet for popularity.

On the whole, the Boston Opera Co. is assured of a warm welcome. The Imperial will make considerable changes in its orchestral pit and stage crews to handle the important engagement, while hotels are crowding up a bit to take care of the performers for a week's stretch.

BIG GIFT TO INTERCHURCH.

Baptists Get $40,000 From Laura Spellman Rockefeller Fund.

New York, May 3.—Among the contributions to the drive of the Northern Baptist convention for $100,000,000, which is a part of the $300,000,000 sought by the Interchurch World Movement, was a qualified gift of $40,000 from the Laura Spellman Rockefeller Memorial Fund. Mrs. Laura Spellman Rockefeller was the wife of John D. Rockefeller.

The new Rockefeller gift increased the total of the Baptist fund to $30,000,000.
The total of the interchurch campaign, including the Baptist, up to last Thursday evening was $86,949,450.

The new Rockefeller gift brings the total gifts from the Rockefeller family to the Baptist movement up to $60,000,000.
The new $40,000 Rockefeller contribution is half an outright gift and half a conditional one. Of the $20,000,000 conditional, the first million will be handed over when the fund reaches $62,000,000, and the second million when it reaches $87,500,000.

The British mails here closed at 4 o'clock this morning for transmission by steamship St. Paul from New York. The next mail for Great Britain will close here at 3 p. m. on Thursday for the Victorian, via Quebec.

JOFFRE FETED IN MADRID.

Madrid, May 3.—Marshal Joffre, commander of the armies of France in the first battle of the Marne in 1914, who was visiting Madrid last week, was a guest of honor at a brilliant reception at the ministry of war. Most of the prominent officers of the Spanish army and navy were present. The reception followed an official luncheon at the French embassy, which was attended by members of the cabinet, former ministers, various party leaders and members

A DANGER SIGNAL—
TENDER AND BLEEDING
GUMS

Healthy teeth cannot live in diseased tissue. Gums tainted with Pyorrhea are dangerously diseased. For not only the teeth are affected, but Pyorrhea germs seep into the body, lower its vitality and cause many ills.
Pyorrhea begins with tender and bleeding gums. Then the gums recede, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the poisonous germs that breed in pockets about them.
Four out of five people over forty have this disease. But you need not have it. Visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection. And keep Pyorrhea away by using Forhan's For the Gums.

Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress—if used in time and used consistently.
Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this.
Forhan's keeps the gums hard and healthy, the teeth white and clean. If you have tender or bleeding gums, start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions, and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

of the diplomatic corps. Later the mayor was host to the marshal at the city hall, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion.
The distinguished warrior was received by King Alfonso, his progress to the palace being through streets lined with cheering crowds. The enthusiasm of the people was one of the features, Marshal Joffre receiving an ovation whenever he appeared.
French residents of Madrid and veterans of the world war also paid homage to the marshal.

DISTRESSING
SCENES IN WRECK
THAT KILLED 150

Bombay, April 29.—(Associated Press) —Extremely distressing and pathetic scenes were enacted in the train wreck on the Oudh and Rohilkhand railway, east of Delhi, on Saturday, when 150 passengers were either killed or burned to death. Only a few of the large number of women and children on the trains escaped burning, while there were only three survivors of three Hindu marriage parties. As a result of the collision the gas installation caught fire and the flames spread rapidly.

The uninjured Indians fled terror-stricken to the jungle. Those remaining watched helplessly while the screaming victims slowly roasted to death.
The medical arrangements aboard the train were totally inadequate to give necessary assistance. Several British subjects aboard escaped injury. After the accident spoils of molten silver were found in the vicinity, resulting from the melting of the hoards of rupees many Indians carry about with them.
