GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

"MICKEY" WANTS A GERMAN HELMET

No Fun Landing Head Down in Practicing Breathless Falls, Says Mabel Normand

"Mickey," featuring Mabel Normand, to be shown at the Imperial Theatre on Monday night, is filled with unexpected situations not called for in the scenario, and although this spontaneity brings many a brilliant flash into the picture, still Mabel Normand admits that the life of a comedienne is not all gigue and gurgle.

One day, when Mabel was called upon to dust a chair, during one of the scenes for "Mickey," she tripped over a rug, took a header, landed up against one of those old-fashioned nine-foot high hall-closets and tipped it over. Mabel had just time to brace herself and throw her hands over her head when the clock came down on her. For several seconds she struggled, and then Bill Claven, butler in the scene, came to her rescue, the camera man, realising that the staff, though not called for, was good action, filmed the incident, and it has been added to the great number of humorous situations in "Mickey."

But sometimes they don't film the "unexpected." Mabel Normand, as "Mickey," was to fall through a roof in which, to be effective, she must land on her feet. Mabel found it easy enough to fall, but landing head up was another matter. "Oh, for one of those German helmets," she cried, after the twentieth attempt.

ALL NEW, OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT

All new vaudeville programme at the Opera House tonight, the new bill offering Thompson and Hale in a high class vocal and piano specialty; Richards and Lawrence, eccentric comedians; Mitchell and Markham, comedy skit with songs, dances and a few humorous turns; Little Albert, a Japanese entertainer and juggler; Panzer Duo, comedy acrobats and dancers; and the serial drama, "The Tiger's Trail," with Ruth Roland.

This evening at 7.30 and 9.15; tomorrow afternoon at 2 and 3.30.

THE STAR TONIGHT

The picture bill at the Star Theatre for this evening includes the eleventh chapter of "Hands Up," featuring Ruth Roland, Harold Lloyd in "Crack Your Heels," the weekly issue of the "Canadian News," and a two-reel comedy. Regular matinee tomorrow.

SHOE MEN TELL ABOUT PRICES marked it down to $8 she wouldn't buy it at all.
Robert Masson said that he had increased his percentage of profit since the beginning of the war, now since he started business. Three years ago a boot which cost him $6 cost now from $9 to $10. The advance was about fifty per cent and he expected the prices to be higher next September. He believed there was better value in the Canadian shoe at $7.50 than in the American imported shoe at $8.50. The shoe which he sold for $18 cost him $14. His gross profits were from 25 per cent to 35 per cent. The actual profit he could not state exactly. It was his own business and he did not keep the accounts of it shoe business entirely separate from his other business affairs.
