From Jail From Jail From Jail From Jail From Jail From Jail Wellsville, N. Y., adopted a municipal boy when Glen Gray and Edward Wil-cox were brought up before Justice Ful-ler on charge of stealing a horse and buggy. Both lads pleaded guilty and sen-tence of six months in County Jail was imposed upon Gray and a term in the State Reformatory upon Wilcox. It appeared that neither boy had been given sufficient chance to be good, and citizens appeared and volunteered to act as sponsor for at least one of the boys. Wilcox was taken care of by an ac-quaintance in Yorkshire, and Gray be-came the property of the citizens of Wellsville, under the personal guidance of M. D. Haskins, a leader in local boy movements.
