sk., Nov. 22, 1919. Bote:— evening the Cud- id" Society of the ld a Basket Social for the benefit of

The party was a great success. $548.70 were the net proceeds.

A prize was given to the highest bidder, and another for the best basket. It was not easy to judge the baskets, because most of them were deserving of a prize. Miss Dietrich won; her's being a really perfect model of an auto.

The ladies certainly showed great zeal in making the evening a pleasant one, and the gentlemen did not stay behind either. They bought the baskets by brisk bidding. None went under $5.00. Some ranged from $20 to $29.

The church stands now finished so far that one can see that it will be an ornament to our town. The severe weather prevented further work.

Here follows a list of those who contributed so generously in order to get the building well ahead. Others promised to do their part too and will fulfill this in the near future.

The people of Cudworth are certainly to be congratulated for showing such zeal for the house of God. Though they are the youngest congregation in St. Peter's Colony, may they become the most fervent.

WATSON, Nov. 29th, 1919.

Dear St. Peters Bote:—

The Ladies' Aid of the Sacred Heart Church intend holding a grand bazaar on Dec. 8th. Services will be held in Watson on that day. Immediately after services a sumptuous dinner will be served by the "Ladies Aid," in the Town Hall. After dinner the bazaar will proceed in the usual way. There is a beautiful display of fancy work—Come and select your Christmas gift.—In the evening, after supper, there will be a picture show.

The Ladies Aid are doing everything in their power to make this bazaar a success and we hope everyone will pleasantly and courteously co-operate.

Apart from the appetizing meals that are to be served, there is a grand display of needle work, not only in the fancy line, but plain practical articles, all marked at a very reasonable figure. All the ladies who are good at making candy are invited to make a contribution for the Home-Made-Candy table, as we expect a large demand.

In a later issue we will be able to give a detailed account of the bazaar.

Mr. Sheedy of Saskatoon and Miss Cecilia Kiefer of Watson were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Father Dominic on Monday, Nov. 24th. On Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Sheedy returned to Saskatoon, where they intend to reside. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Sheedy a pleasant journey through life.

Miss Ida Vossen of Dundurn is a visitor in town. —Corr.

PRINCE ALBERT, Nov. 30, 1919.

Dear St. Peter's Bote:—

The last two weeks have been weeks of severe trials for the Sisters of the Holy Family Hospital. All on a sudden the water connections gave way and the city had to leave the hospital practically without water supply for several days. When at last the connections were restored and every one looked happy and contented another trial of a far more serious nature befell the institution. When the water was turned on, the sister in charge at once saw to the boilers in the furnace room and was satisfied that everything was in perfect condition.

Some time after she had left the room, the coal-boy, a young lad of 16, whose only office was to shovel coal in the furnace, began to monkey with the boilers, first flooded the boilers and seeing the water rise got afraid and opened the waste outlet. With the intention of going back soon he went to the orphanage and forgot all about the boilers. Later on when the thought came back to his mind, he ran to the room to find both boilers empty and glowing red. In his excitement he turned the cold water tap and thus caused the sudden explosion of both boilers. Fortunately he never thought of first closing the waste valve; this saved the whole building from going up in the air. Indeed it was bad enough to be without fire with a house full of sick people and 20 below zero. One of the boilers had 4 sections cracked from end to end. The smaller one only 2 and in the latter the damage was not so great that it could not be remedied at least for a few days. A plumber succeeded in stopping the leak and now the hospital has to run on one boiler. As the weather has been quite mild for the last few days, the institution has been comfortable; but if last night's temperature—26 below zero—were to keep up for any length of time, the work might be too much for a small boiler. To make the mishap complete, whilst the sisters did their best to keep the place warm, some one left a window open and caused the water-pipes to burst. Thus it seemed that everything united to try the good sisters' patience and confidence in God.

The hospital always has a great number of patients, few beds are empty or remain empty for any length of time. The question of getting the necessary help is always a very important one. It seems almost impossible to find competent help of any kind.

These last few days have been busy days for many of the Prince Albert people who literally besieged the city hall to pay arrears of taxes so as to save their property. Tomorrow, Dec. 1, is the last day of grace. Unfortunately I have come to the conclusion that our property is beyond redemption as the amount of taxes against it are above the value of the block. To own property is far from being always a blessing.

With the coming of the P. Burns Co. and the Provincial Stockyards, Prince Albert seems to have received a new lease of life. There is a constant stream of cattle coming into the city, cattle is turned into money and part of the latter is naturally spent in the city. Still all this does not lower the high cost of living. Everything is high and it takes sometimes a good deal of figuring to make ends meet. But then God always helps those that try to help themselves. —W. B.

Now is the time for Sales. In the next few weeks you will receive so many "catchy" "ads" that you hardly know where to buy. We will have no Sale, but we cordially invite you to compare our prices with all so-called "Sale" prices.

OUR COLLEGE FUND

Kind reader, we take it for granted that you have seen our frequent appeals for support for the new College that we intend to erect as soon as possible. It cannot have escaped your notice that approximately $2500 have been contributed by a number of generous patrons for this praiseworthy cause. Did you do your share already? If not, do not delay any longer. Remember, a first-class College in this part of the province of Saskatchewan is a necessity. Since the establishment of St. Peter's Colony, sixteen years ago, the country has shown marvellous development. We Catholics must be up-to-date and keep pace with this rapid development, if we wish to maintain our standing and prestige. The Canadian West is in urgent need of leaders of men, both clerical and lay. The men forming public opinion in the West at present—though they may be well-meaning enough—are to a great extent one-sided leaders (for example the prohibition cranks) and are in many matters actuated by utterly erroneous conceptions concerning education and the principles of true christianity. Quite often they are unable to distinguish between right and wrong. We well remember the time, when one of the big western Canadian dailies took us to task and attacked us for enunciating an "amusing and strange doctrine", because we fearlessly propounded the fundamental rights of parents over their children. The editor of the big daily evidently had never before heard of such fundamental God-given rights. Was he to blame for such ignorance? Is the Eskimo to blame, because he incredulously laughs at you, when you try to explain to him that the people of New York City and Chicago are using the elevated electric train to go from one part of the city to another? In either case the answer will be: They were not brought up and educated that way.

A first-class College will educate first-class men. We need thoroughly educated men, men who by their profound knowledge will help to dispel the many prejudices and misconceptions under which many otherwise well-meaning mortals are laboring. Therefore, help along and assist us in establishing the new St. Peter's College. God will reward you!
