POLICE COURT.

McCutcheon Pleads Guilty—Some Drunks and an Assault Case.

Andrew O'Leary was arrested yesterday afternoon on St. John street by Sergeant Charles and this morning was fined for drunkenness four dollars and ten days.

Robert Morrison and John Merritt endeavored to celebrate on Charlotte street between eight and nine o'clock last evening, and were hauled in by Officers Killen and White. They claimed to be sailors on one of the steamers, but after some coaxing admitted that they were schooner sailors and too many schooners had overcome them. Morrison was fined four dollars and Merritt two, but they hadn't enough money. Morrison offered three dollars to call the thing square, but it was not accepted, and in company with Sergeant Ross the two went to their schooner at Carleton to find some more cash.

Michael Manning last evening on Main street assaulted an unknown man in view of the police, and was arrested.
He did not deny the charge and this morning, and when Officer Sample had given evidence on the matter Manning was sentenced to twenty dollars or two months in jail.
The case against Murray D. McCutcheon again came up. Captain Hastings, of the North End police gave evidence in regard to the arrest of the prisoner, and the finding of forty dollars in a woman's stocking, and eighty dollars in a woman's trunk. When asked if he had any statement to make McCutcheon said, "I plead guilty to the charge against me." He was committed for trial, and as elsewhere stated, will be sentenced tomorrow.

acceptably filled the position of Dis-his fellow members and the grand demanding all his time. The appointment of Mr. Winter's successor has not

THE FREDERICTON EXHIBITION.

The Fredericton exhibition was opened today by His Honor, Lieut. Gov.
McClellan; several members of the government being also present. Quite a number of people went up from St.
John. The steamer David Weston took seventy-five excursionists from this city this morning, and tomorrow's cheap fare, fifty cents for the round trip, is expected to draw a crowd of passengers for the steamer.
The lieutenant-governor was attended by his aide-de-camp, and accompanied by Hon. Messrs. Tweedie, Pugsley and Harris. The mayor and the city council were also present, and a very large crowd of visitors, even larger than was expected, the city being crowded today. The address to the lieutenant-governor was read by John A. Campbell, M. P., and his honor made an appropriate reply. The various exhibits are practically all in place and on the whole the show is an extremely creditable one. The display of fruit is rather light, because the crop this year was poor and small, but five stock and other exhibits are greatly praised.

THE COUNTRY MARKET.

For the first time in many months the floor of the country market was last night given a thorough cleaning.
The hose was introduced and for four hours, from six o'clock until ten, the men employed about the building were kept busy, sweeping, scraping and scrubbing out every nook and corner where the dirt could find a lodging place. And this morning the results of the work were noticeable in the cleaner and fresher odor which permeated the building, as well as in its improved appearance.

The change in the condition of the market is having a marked effect upon the business done there for the businessmen and others who have stalls in the building think it worthy of note that many of their former customers who on account of the dirty state of the market went elsewhere for their goods, are now returning to them.
A few days ago Supt. McKay of one of the largest Boston markets, visiting the building and spoke in the highest terms of its appearance and many conveniences.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS OLD.

The Star this morning was shown a half-yearly account rendered by William Hazen to John Black & Co. of this city. It contains items for goods purchased between January and July, 1891, and the amount of the account is $10 pounds.

The articles mentioned are many and varied, ranging almost from the proverbial needle to the anchor, and the prices charged are by no means high.
The paper is remarkably well preserved, and the writing perfectly clear and distinct.

ENGINE AND TENDER RAISED.

Diver E. Leahy returned last evening from Grand Falls, where he had been employed in connection with the raising of the C. P. R. engine and tender, which went through the bridge ditch some time ago. They were both taken out and found to be in good condition. All obstructions in the river were likewise removed.

THREE BARN BURNED.

Children playing with matches at Nashwaakias, across the river from Fredericton, today caused George Hugh, one of the leading farmers of York Co., the loss of three barns, one a new one just finished and all of them packed full of hay and grain. The three buildings are a total loss, and it is said there is no insurance.

PETITION DISMISSED.

That of A. A. Stockton Against Hon.
A. G. Blair Dismissed Without Costs.

The election court to try the petition of Dr. A. A. Stockton against Hon. A.
G. Blair opened this morning. Judge Hastings and Judge Gregory presided. There were only two of three people present outside of the officers of the court and the counsel, J. B. M.
Baxter and J. D. Hasen for the petitioner, and A. G. Blair, Jr. for the respondent.

Shortly after the court opened J. B.
M. Baxter, acting for the petitioner, read a letter from the clerk of the crown in chancery, H. J. Lamotte, to the clerk of the supreme court, Mr. Allen, stating that it was necessary for him to present the papers, asked for by the petitioner's counsel in the case, in person, and that his expenses were four dollars a day. Roughly speaking $50 would be needed to cover the expenses in this matter. This Mr. Baxter said he had not paid, considering the charge extortionate, and as a result the papers were not here, and there was no evidence to offer.

A. G. Blair, Jr., moved that the petition be dismissed, and the preliminary admitted were regular and he did not ask for costs.

Judge Hastings said that the judgement of the court was that the petition be dismissed without costs.

The court adjourned side die.

MRS. JOHN MCINTOSH.

An Aged and Highly Esteemed Resident of Carleton Passed Away this Morning.

The death occurred this morning of Mrs. John McIntosh, of Carleton, at the age of 83 years. Mrs. McIntosh had been living a short time with her son, Dr. McIntosh, of Coburg street, but previous to that she had lived continuously in Carleton, where she was well known and highly esteemed, having very many friends throughout the city.
Despite her great age she had enjoyed good health until quite recently.
She was a member of Carleton Presbyterian church.

FOOT BADLY CUT.

Lieut. Charles H. Allen, eldest son of T. C. Allen, met with a painful though not serious accident at Pine Bluff camp on Saturday afternoon. Just before retiring he and Harold Babitt were having a tussle when Mr. Allen was thrown suddenly, one of his feet going through the window-glass, cutting his foot at the side of the instep.
Dr. McLeod was summoned and had to take five stitches in the wound. Mr.
Allen is, however, able, with the aid of a crutch, to attend to his work at the exhibition building today. Yesterday's Gleamer.

WEDDED AT SUSSEX.

Miss Violet Kinnear, only daughter of John M. Kinnear, of Sussex, was couple left on the C. P. R. west for Denver, Colo., where they will spend the winter. The Rev. Frederick Scoville, of St. Jude's church, St. John, West,

SUDDEN DEATH.

A well to do farmer and good citizen Thomas Vail, of Jacksonville Corner, Carleton Co., was found dead in his cow stable adjoining his residence yesterday afternoon. He had probably passed away about an hour or so before he was discovered. The deceased was 55 years of age and was unmarried. Heart disease, it is supposed, was the cause of his death.

ings hall will be held on the B. and A.

THE TORREYBURN CASE.

The county court met this morning and the Torreyburn case was resumed.
The evidence of James McLaughlin finished the prosecution, and the case of the defence was commenced. M.
Doherty was on the stand at the time the court adjourned and the evidence of O'Neill and Connolly is still to be heard.

AS IT IS IN BANGOR.

Prohibition does not appear to interfere with the revenues of the Bangor police court. In that respect the Maine town appears to equal, in fact to exceed St. John. Six drunks were lined up for sentence on Monday morning.

SALVATION ARMY CASE SETTLED.

The complaint against the Salvation Army for making a noise and disturbing residents near their barracks on Charlotte street was finally settled in the police court today. Recorder Stone, after reviewing the case, stated that an amicable means of settlement had been arrived at. The commanding officer, Brigadier Sharp, had promised to write him a letter to the effect that in future the services would be conducted so as not to annoy people.

This letter had not been received by Br. Skinner, but Capt. McIlhenny stated that it had been written in accordance with the agreement mentioned by Mr. Skinner. Capt. McIlhenny appeared in court and made a statement to practically the same effect as contained in the letter. He said that he had been directed by his commanding officer to state that the services will be conducted along the lines indicated in the letter.

With this agreement the case was called off; but Mr. Skinner stated that should there be any recurrence of the disturbance complained of more drastic measures would be taken to have it suppressed.

Mr. H. MacAlpine was unable to attend this morning, owing to business in Fredericton.
