gett, G. S. Wall and J. From & Co. in Calais at

Nov. 4.—A most delightful drive whist party was given on Monday evening by Mrs. W. F.
Todd to a number of lady friends. The ladies chose their partners with commendable and au-sere, some of which were original and most amusing.
The prizes were won by Mrs. Henry Graham and Mrs. V. A. Waterbury and the "hooky" prize fell to the lot of Mrs. Arthur S. Burdette, and Mrs.
James G. Sterling. At twelve o'clock supper was served. The ladies who enjoyed this delightful party were Mrs. Henry Graham, Mrs. J. G.
Haven, Mrs. Howard McAllister, Mrs. Charles W. Young, Mrs. Hassan Grimmer, Mrs. V. A.
Waterbury, Mrs. Arthur S. Burdette, Mexico, Mrs. Frank A. Grimmer, Mrs. John E. Algar
Mrs. Frederic E. Rose, Mrs. Euston, Miss Mary Abbott, Miss Carrie Washburn, Miss Kate Washburn, Miss Daisy Hanson and Miss Rosa Rose.

A "merchants banquet" is being discussed for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. The ladies auxiliary have it in hand, and a most efficient committee have been appointed and all the arrangements point to a pleasant and successful entertainment.

Mrs. Frederic Hamm on Hallow'e'en gave a party for the pleasure of her little son Vincent and his young friends, all sorts of games were included and prizes were given to the successful winners.
It was a jolly party and the home-bought sweets and ten were said to be the shortest ever spent, so happy were the young guests. Mrs. Hamm and Miss Josephine Hamm have a happy gift of entertaining young people that always make a visit to their home a pleasant one.

A most unique Hallow'e'en party was given by Mrs. H. J. Murchie to which only her intimate lady friends were invited. The invitations were issued on paper ornamented with skulls and cross bones, witches heads, and black cats, and a verse written in a weird style inviting her friends to come dressed in white. So in sheets and pillow cases they arranged themselves and accepted the delicious invitation. On arrival they found the house lighted with Jack-o'-lanterns, a tiny carved out of pumpkins, the lights were very dim and a ghastly feeling crept over all. All sorts of Hallow'e'en games were arranged for the evening amusement.

At a late hour supper was announced. The dining room had been prepared especially for the occasion, the table was removed, and the supper spread on the floor on a snow white cloth in a half circle the guests sat on the floor around it, and with long wooden spoons, spoons, and marshmallows and other appropriate dainties for Hallow'e'en. After the supper and as the witching hour of midnight drew near, they sat in front of a glowing fire in a dimly lighted room, and told weird ghost stories that were most thrilling and blood curdling. The evening at last came to an end as all pleasant things eventually do, and the ladies were at last obliged to confess that they were still "of the earth earthly" and to bid their friends adieu and return to their homes. This party is said to be one of the pleasantest and best arranged of the kind ever given on the St. Croix, and was intensely enjoyed by all who were there.

When the news of Gov. McKinley's triumph reached Calais last evening, it was known that the hours were past midnight.

Cora Maxwell has been greatly complimented, and the violin solo, Bice Belis of Scotland played by Miss Corbett, received a well deserved applause which have been most gratifying to the fair vi-

THE THINGS OF VALUE.

Agitation in the world of homeopathic medicine is the very soul of progress, as in politics and religion—the difference of opinion and the individuality of men have been parents of the disagreement by which the standard of these bodies has been elevated. So with most of our famous preparations—foremost in illustration of which truth stands the world-famous remedy for general debility and "Quinine Wine"—and which, when obtainable in its genuine strength, is a miraculous creator of appetite and stimulant, to the general fertility of the system. Quinine Wine and its improvements have, from the first discovery of the virtues of Quinine as a medicinal agent, been one of the most thoroughly discussed remedies ever offered to the public. It is one of the great tonic and life-giving stimulants which medical professionals have endeavored to recognize and describe. Messrs. Nuttall & Lyman, of Toronto, have given to the preparation of their pure Quinine Wine the greatest care due to its importance, and the standard excellence of the article which they offer to the public comes into the market purged of all the defects which skillful observation and scientific opinion has pointed out in the less perfect preparations of the past. All druggists sell it.

The more popular a man is the more apt he is to go to the devil. Some men are so mean they couldn't go to the devil if they wanted to.

Talk about popularity—the prettiest girl in the world isn't it with the man who has favors to bestow.

It may be only a trifling cold, but neglect it and it will leave its finger in your lungs, and you will soon be carried to an untimely grave. In this country we have heard that pneumonia must not be left to have coughs and colds. We cannot avoid them, but we can cure a cure by using Bickie's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, the medicine which has never been known to fail in curing coughs, colds, bronchitis and all affections of the throat, lungs and chest.

When a man marries, he halves his rights and doubles his duties.

There are people who never accomplish anything, because they try to do too much.

"I Never Fail"—Mr. S. M. Boughner, Langton, writes: "For about two years I was troubled with First Stomach for the cure. This medicine was a specially cured, and although four years have elapsed since then they have not returned." Par-mer's Pills are anti-bilious and a specific for the cure of Liver and Kidney Complaints, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Headache, Pains, etc., and will regulate the secretions and remove all bilious matter.

No man is brave who is afraid of the truth.

Behave yourself, and you will keep somebody else out of mischief.

Inflammation of Rheumatism—Mr. S. Ackerman, commercial traveler, Bellville, writes: "Some years ago I used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for inflammatory rheumatism, and three bottles effected a complete cure. I was the whole of one summer unable to move without crutches, and every movement caused excruciating pains. I am now out on the road and exposed to all kinds of weather, but have never been troubled with rheumatism since. I, however, keep a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Oil on hand, and I always recommend it to others, as it did so much for me.

The man whose desires are sanctified will be sure to get what he wants.

Nobody can be made rich with money who doesn't do his job without it.

There is no such thing as a free lunch.

It is not the man who is afraid of the truth, but the man who is afraid of the consequences of the truth.

It is not the man who is afraid of the truth,
but the man who is afraid of the consequences of
the truth.

It is not the man who is afraid of the truth,
but the man who is afraid of the consequences of
the truth.

It is not the man who is afraid of the truth,
but the man who is afraid of the consequences of
the truth.

It is not the man who is afraid of the truth,
but the man who is afraid of the consequences of
the truth.

It is not the man who is afraid of the truth,
but the man who is afraid of the consequences of the truth.
