MARSANS INJUNCTION DISSOLVED
St. Louis, Aug. 20.—The injunction restraining Armando Marsans from playing with the St. Louis Federals was dissolved by Judge Dyer in the Federal District Court here today and Marsans is now at liberty to play ball with the St. Louis team.

An attorney for the Cincinnati club filed a motion for an appeal, which will be heard by Judge Dyer tomorrow. An appeal, it was said, would serve to prevent Marsans from playing with the St. Louis Federals pending a decision by the Circuit Court of appeals.

Phil Ball, principal owner of the St. Louis Federals, said that Marsans would join the team Friday night. He also said that if the case is definitely disposed of in favor of St. Louis, the local club will file suit against the Cincinnati Nationals to recover money advanced to Marsans.

Marsans left here today to join the team at Brooklyn. Judge Dyer's decision, in effect, sets aside the reserve clause, for Marsans was to receive $1,100 for his services for 1915 and 1916. This $1,100 was included in the $4,400 salary, but the contract read that the "total compensation for the season herein contracted for" was $4,400. Under Judge Dyer's ruling the "season contracted for" terminated October 14, 1914.
