Brunswick Chapter, I. O. D. E. Very pretty posters are being displayed for an entertainment to be held in the City Hall on the 22nd of May by the Brunswick Chapter. The one I saw shows two children skipping and the following announces that they are "Skipping along to the City Hall To see 'The Old Maids' and 'The Belle of the Ball'."

Each poster is different, and each one has a "poem" on it. I know of other delightful plans for this same evening in the way of amusement and entertainment, so it may be well to secure tickets early. The Brunswick Chapter, I. O. D. E. are managing this entertainment, and many refreshments have taken place. The proceeds are for the fund to procure instruments for 140th band. This chapter has also arranged to have a day at Seaside Park early in June, probably on the birthday of our Gracious King. There will be military parades and drills, and an excellent cabaret run both afternoon and evening. The proceeds of the entire day will be for the Patriotic Fund.

Not nearly all the women took advantage of their right to vote in the election yesterday. Don't women care how the city they live in is managed? Surely it is most important to care, and if we care we will look to it that we choose the best men to seek after affairs.

The task of counting the returns from King Albert Day was a great one and the ladies were at it hard all day. The full amount so far is over $4,000, and there are many other places to hear from. This amount includes East St. John, $4741; Fairville, $12440; Rousesay, $12446; from Kingsbury to Ford factory, $4423; Clarendon, per Mr. McTavish, $8,446; Ladlow St. Baptist Relief Society, $5,000; South Bay, $18,45; the Norton United Sunday school scholars gave the amount of their annual total $10,000. Many people who were overlooked came to Mrs. Smith and brought contributions, one gentleman handing in a large amount in this way. Altogether it was a wonderful success.

Mrs. E. Atherton Smith received last night a telephone message from Colonel Myra Sherman of the Women's Volunteer Reserve, Fredericton, stating that this organization had collected the sum of $550.00 for Belgium. This splendid organization worked most enthusiastically and sold all the pictures and buttons, having to make extra blouses.

Mrs. McElhinney desires to return thanks to all who so kindly offered to assist her to go to England. Many refused to have their gifts returned and the money has been deposited to Mrs. McElhinney's credit in the bank.

New Brunswick Women's Institute. Generous has been the response on the part of the New Brunswick Women's Institutes in sending aid to the Canadian prisoners of war in Germany. A circular letter was mailed to all the institutes in February, and the results to date are: Debec, Welsford, Salmon Beach, Lower Millstream, Pomeroy Ridge, Lorneville and Queenstown are sending $2.00 monthly to assist in supporting Canadian prisoners; Debec, Charlotte Cove and Cumming's Cove, Pomeroy Ridge, Hillsborough, Lorneville and Grand Falls have sent boxes containing food and clothing; Dalhousie and Penobscot are sending $4.00 monthly; Albert $5.00 monthly; and donations of $2.00 from Fair Haven, $5.00 from Port Elgin; $5.00 from Clifton; $7.00 from Beersville; $10.00 from Elgin; $15.00 from Harcourt; $10.00 from Massville; $20.00 from Nashvashak and $25.00 from Blackville, have been forwarded to Mrs. Rivers-Bulkeley, Prisoners of War Department, Canadian Red Cross Society, 14-16 Cockspur St., London, to be expended on food and clothing for our own detained as prisoners in Germany.

The Belgians continue to receive aid from the Women's Institutes in our province, the following donations having been sent to the proper authorities since the first of the new year:

Queenstown, $45; Upper Sackville, $10; Lower Kingsclear, $50; Corn Hill $10; Salmon Beach, $17; Tay Settlement, $53.25; Bloomfield and Central Norton, $50; Bass River, $10; Beersville and Port's Mills, $5; Stonehaven, $5; Clifton, $8; Ripples, $20; and Hillsborough, $115.66.

A girl apparently just past her teens, with gray eyes and brown hair, bobbed in a Castle clip, is waiting in Bellevue hospital, New York, for someone to identify her. It is believed she was knocked down by a blow on the head and robbed not only of any articles of value that she may have had but also of her hair. She has lost her memory completely.

Everyone knows the late Dowager Queen of Roumania as "Carmen Sylva," the writer. Not so many knew that her successor, the present Marie, is also a successful writer. She has lately written "Minda, the History of an Unfortunate Little Queen," which was given the place of honor in the famous "Revue des Deux Mondes." She was the Princess Marie of Edinburgh, who used to play pranks on her father's flagship, the Alexandra, at Malta, and fry the ham and eggs for the crew.

CLOSING OF "HEART SONGS" CAMPAIGN. We announce, with regret, the closing of our wonderful campaign in distributing the greatest song book ever gotten together—"Heart Songs." We have only copies enough on hand to satisfy those of our readers who bring their coupons for the remaining few days. The advertisements that have been running in these pages for several weeks past have fully described the merits of the book—and the daily readers have constituted a veritable educational course in song music. We are more than gratified at the response from the public, and are sanguine that through this enormous distribution the refining influence of the songs will be felt for years in this community. Attention is called to the advertisements that may appear in our columns for the brief period remaining. The coupon offer will be published daily.

Refined Girl's Experience With a Coal-Heaver Husband ROBERT EDESON IN "THE CAVE MAN" Imperial Presents a Wonderful Vitagraph

MADALINE MISCHIEF, A SOCIETY LEADER, becomes tired of the ceaseless round of balls, parties and teas and seeks real adventure. She makes a wager with Dolly Van Dream, her most intimate friend, that she can pick a man at random from the "summers-end tent" and make a social lion of him, without his being discovered. Carried away with the novelty of the idea, Madaline drops a letter from the window of her room in a fashionable hotel, that contains half of a hundred dollar bill and instructions should the finder be a woman to give it to the first man who meets the man to call at her apartments and receive the other half of the bill. The letter falls into the hands of Haulick Smag, a coal heaver, as he is about to deliver a load of coal. He, with difficulty, deciphers the contents of the letter, but the torn money, he understands at once and unconsciously grabbing his coal shovel, battles his way to Madaline's apartments.

to accidents while at work? If so, you should carry a box of Zam-Buk. The workshop or factory, when an accident occurs, an immediate application of Zam-Buk will save much suffering and consequent loss of time. There is nothing like Zam-Buk for stopping pain, and being a strong antiseptic it destroys all germs and prevents wounds from festering.

Mr. J. Benson, an iron-worker, of Sheridan St., Brantford, Ont., says: "I am always getting bits of metal in my hands, which invariably begin to fester unless I apply Zam-Buk. Needless to say, I am never without a box of Zam-Buk."

Letters Received by Uncle Dick From His Boys and Girls

TODAY'S LITTLE JOKE. Little Girl to Auntie who wishes to buy a large doll, in answer—"No thanks, Auntie, I don't want a wax doll, you see we have a meat + one at home now."

Wrote a Nice Story. Havelock, N. B.

Dear Uncle Dick:— I was very glad to hear from you through the columns. I like the Corner fine, and am sending you the story competition for this week on "my pet." I have found the names of all the flowers in the paper and will send them in later. I suppose you have lots of new members joining the Corner and finding it very interesting. I like the stories about Uncle Wigzly very much. In the two puzzles in the paper I could only find the name in the first one, and that was "Uncle Dick." I would like to know what the other one was. I guess this is all for this time. Sincerely yours, LUCY THORNE.

Likes The Last Contest. April 3rd, 1916.

Dear Uncle Dick:— I am glad you gave us another competition like the tree competition. It is the answer to my trial, and I hope it is successful. I will wish you good by for the present. With love from WILLIE HARRIS.

Prize Winner's Letter. Montrose Farm (R. D. No. 2.) Norton, Kings Co., N. B.

Dear Uncle Dick:— I am trying the Story Contest this week, but I do not think I will win the prize. I wish you would put the Uncle Wigzly story in every day I like them so well. The snow is going very fast; it will be a good thing when it is all gone. You have not yet had the Ship Contest you said you were going to have. I think I will stop for this time, but I will write you again. With love from Your Nephew, ALAN MCC. GRAHAM.

Having Certificate Framed. Alma, N. B.

Dear Uncle Dick:— I thank you very much for sending me the nice certificate of merit, which I received last evening. My mamma is going to passepartout it for me. Sincerely your nephew, RALPH MAWEN.

Norah, fresh from old Ireland, started at the baby's toy balloon, which wavered at a place two or three feet higher than her head and was anchored to the back of a chair. "This square and wonderful entity!" she said, raising her hands, "to see it up and balanced 'tis own self—and it standin' on a string!" Silks of all kinds—taffeta, faille, poplin and satin—will be seen in the spring.

News Of The St. John Theatres Told In The Right Way

Who's Who and What's What in the Picture Game and on the Stage— Film Favorites and What They Say and Do.

Lyric.

"According to Law." A Mutual masterpiece of luscious. In the course of its development the story of "According to Law" undergoes some changes. This play by Paul M. Bryan and Joseph Trant starts out to be of the problem sort, but the domestic question is dropped without ceremony and not altogether to the regret of the spectator.

There are two parts to the story and one sees William Proctor as a man in the prime of life, later as a very aged man, in both parts his acting is good. First we follow the love affair of the mother then later of the daughter, Bella. The divorce court pictures are well staged and there are many scenes of highly emotional dramatic action. A storm on the sea is very realistic.

Prominent in the cast are E. K. James, Alan Robinson, Charles W. Travis, Helen Martin and Mabelia Barling. The scenes laid in the Florida Everglades have a realism which makes them the most memorable of any in the picture.

The vaudeville act by the Lyric is Albert, a clown, who twirls on bars and has some funny stunts. His make-up is excellent.

An Amorist in a cave man. Did you know it? Would you rather be beaten than bored? The types of men were hardly fairly contrasted in the "Cave Man" in which Mr. Robert Edeson is featured. The only other person who was all presentable being Mr. Geo. de Beck as "Brewster Bradford." Certainly it is an interesting picture from start to finish. The story has been told in the papers but you need to see it to appreciate the awakening of the "Cave Man" and in one scene how he rises to true nobility. His experiences as an art critic are very funny and the pointing with the thumb and "good but why do it" were most characteristic.

Miss Fay Wallace is a clever and vivacious actress. She could make a telephone conversation look more real than anyone I ever saw and she has a delightful way of crinkling up her eyes when she laughs. It is an absolutely impossible story, but who cares whether things could really happen so long as they are entertainingly pictured for us upon stage or screen? The scenes taken in the big steel works were splendid.

The Manetta Duo of operatic singers were given a good reception at the Imperial yesterday. The first number given by Madame Manetta, who wore a handsome yellow silk gown, was the song called "Cherie," in which her beautiful soprano voice was well displayed. Manetta sang Paula Tosti's "Goodbye," and together they sang the English Pantomime Co.

A packed house greeted Jack Rossley's English pantomime and musical company at their opening performance last evening, and it is hoped that full houses will continue throughout the week, for they offer a very pretty musical show, full of life and brightness. The principals are clever, the chorus is excellent, and the child artists are most admirable. There is plenty of comedy and very pretty dancing. Jack, the King's Piper, was the title of last evening's offering, and it was scotch all through, and gave an opportunity for Highland costumes, Highland flings and reels and strathspeys. The singing of "Your King and Country Need You" by Kathleen Barnes, though the little lady possesses a charming voice, was not quite as much applauded as other numbers by the young men in the audience. Miss Barnes, singing later, had to respond to many encores. Where all are so good it is impossible to single out any one, but Joe Burkhart, as wee McGregor, caused most of the laughs, so perhaps was the favorite. The chorus is composed mostly of children from St. John's, Newfoundland, and we welcome them to St. John, N. B. and wish them a pleasant week here.

The musical numbers were as follows: Opening song, "Maggie MacLaren," village children.

"Where is My Wandering Wife Tonight," Percy Orth.

"Taking My Father's Tea," Joe Burkhart.

"I Am a Piper," Jack Rossley.

"Bonnie, My Highland Queen," entire company.

"The Killie Lads," Gertrude Richardson, Lizzie Earle and company.

"My First Wife," Marie Rossley. Highland dance, village belles.

"Cheer Up Molly," Kathleen Barnes.

"Sandy MacPherson," Jack Rossley.

"Your King and Country Need You," Dot Marshall and chorus.

"Alice, Where Art Thou," Orth and Burkhart.

"The Long Long Trail," Gertrude Edwards and chorus.

Sword Dance and Highland Fling, village children.

"Mary Maclean," Bonnie Rossley.

"Under the Canadian Flag," entire company.

Finale—"Duncan MacIntosh," entire company.

God Save the King. Louise Bates, lately featured as the "Falsstaff Girl," makes her dramatic debut in "The Water Devil," a Thauhouser Mutual Masterpiece. De Luxe Edition, in which she plays the heavy lead. Miss Bates was prima donna with "The Passing Show," at the Winter Garden, New York, when Edwin Thauhouser made her an offer to star in the silent drama.

Virginia, in which she plays the name part, supported by Marguerite Winstler, William Moss, Ed. Hearne and Ray Hanford. The story shows that there is opportunity for every girl no matter to what class her parents belong.

Shakespeare Tercentenary Buttons For Canada. London, April 7—A pleasant little ceremony took place at the Mansion House yesterday when the Lord Mayor formally packed the first two consignments of buttonhole medallions commemorative of the Shakespeare tercentenary festival, three-quarters of a million of which are being sent to Canada to be sold in aid of the British Red Cross, the Belgian Relief Fund and the League of Mercy.

Ellen Terry, as vivacious as ever, struggled with a quill pen addressing a package to Montreal.

"Be sure to give my love to Canada," she urged, when informed that a cable describing the incident was going today. She spoke with the unaffected warm-heartedness of the kindness shown her in the Dominion.

Lady Tree remarked that she had heard from Sir Herbert this morning that he had lost a stone weight on the other side of the Atlantic, but he was enjoying himself immensely.

ALICE FAIRWEATHER. The British War Office drama, "The White Feather," which has scored the most phenomenal success in the history of the English-speaking stage, will be seen at the Opera House soon. "The White Feather" has already reached its second year in London, and is still playing there, and has passed the sixth month of its career of phenomenal business in Australia. It played for one solid year in New York. "The White Feather" is a stirring, melodramatic comedy with many thrills and surprises through its three acts, with the best thrills held in reserve till the end. The theme of the play, revolving around the present European War, makes its appearance of timely interest to Englishmen and Canadians.

UNIQUE TO CHANGE PROGRAMME TWICE WEEKLY ONLY

The new policy being inaugurated at the Unique Theatre on the occasion of its re-opening Thursday afternoon, will include a radical departure from the regular programme. In that the programme will be changed only twice weekly—Monday and Thursday—rather than three times as before. Otherwise it would be impossible for all who would enjoy doing so to patronize the Unique, there being so many other theatres to claim attention and the fact that the capacity of the popular Charlotte street picture house is somewhat out of proportion to the merits of the offerings to be shown under the new policy. The features for the opening Thursday, Friday and Saturday will be the American Titled Masterpiece of luscious, "The Craving," featuring William Russell and Helen Rossen.

The New UNIQUE OPENS ITS DOORS TO THE PUBLIC THURSDAY

AN EVENT OF INTEREST TO THE AMUSEMENT-GOING POPULACE. THE PASSWORD TO THE UNIQUE HEREAFTER WILL BE BIGGER AND BETTER THAN EVER! Only the very best feature productions made by the most prominent manufacturers will hold premier place on the programs. Complete Change of Bill Monday and Thursday SEE NOTICE ELSEWHERE.

PRICES: Matinees—Children 5c; Adults 10c Evenings, Adults 10c; Children Properly Accompanied 5c

THE RAISE IN PRICE is due to the fact that patrons have expressed a desire for features, and the increase is necessitated also because the five cent policy has long since ceased to be a profitable idea.
