

Social Notes of the Week

A delightful outing was held on Monday evening under the Girls' Branch Soldiers' Comfort Association on the steamer Hampton, which took the merry party as far as Chapel Grove and return. The evening was an ideal one and the view of the sunset over the beautiful Kennebecasis hills will long be remembered by those fortunate enough to be present.

Tomorrow the R. K. Y. C. will hold their annual service at Crystal Beach, the Rev. Captain Campbell officiating and an orchestra will be present. A very large number of the different yachting clubs who had each year joined in the "Happy Days" service, are now doing their bit for king and empire overseas, and the large congregation who will, weather permitting, be present will all join with heart and voice in wishing and praying that wars may cease and a safe return home of the brave boys to their loved ones.

ROTHESAY

Rothesay, July 20.—This, Thursday, afternoon, on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. O. Armstrong's summer residence, their two little daughters, Elizabeth and Rachael, Florence Puddington, Catherine and Amy McKean, held a garden tea and sale, proceeds of which are to be given to the fund helping the "prisoners of war," who are in Germany. A number of young folk and many parents and friends attended. Tea was served at small tables, Mrs. H. A. Holmes poured, and little people served. Misses Mary Armstrong and Helen Wilson took charge of the candy table. Florence Puddington and Amy McKean presided at the home cooking table. Elizabeth Armstrong and Allie McKean served the ice cream. Rachael Armstrong and Catherine McKean were in charge of the fancy table. Fenwick Armstrong was at the gate, and Mr. and Mrs. Mpa. Puddington helped everywhere, and the affair was very pleasant and a success in every way. Tickets were sold for a pretty cake box.

At 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, in St. Paul's church, which had been beautifully trimmed with pink and white pointes, wild daisies and vines, the marriage of Miss Emma Arnold Turnbull and Mr. Herbert Yelberton Haines took place, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Canon Daniel assisted by Rev. R. W. Hibbard. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, Mr. Eber Turnbull, of Digby, N. S. She was unattended and charmingly gowned in white duchess lace, with trimmings of chaillie lace, the lovely lace veil is an heirloom in the family, and was worn too by her mother. This was encircled by a wreath of orange blossoms and her bouquet was of white roses and lilies the valley. On arrival of the bride Mrs. Haines had welcomed the bride, the organist, played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, and as she entered the church the choir sang "The Voice that Breathed o'er Eden." After the service, Mr. and Mrs. Haines left in the service Mrs. Walter Perfect Love. As the happy couple left the church, the wedding march was played and the church bell rang merrily. After the ceremony luncheon was served to the bride and relatives at the home of the bride, Mrs. Haines, on College Hill, where the bride had since graduating from "Netherwood." Mr. Percy Turnbull, of Toronto, brother of the bride, and Mr. Bent of Rothesay College staff, were ushers at the church. Others present from outside the village were Mr. and Mrs. Turnbull, the bride's father, Mr. Turnbull and Miss Helen Turnbull, of Digby, N. S.; Miss Dorothy and Master Hendricks and Master Hoy of Hampton. Mr. Haines has been one of the masters at Rothesay College so both bride and groom have hosts of friends here and their popularity was attested by the many beautiful gifts received. They left by motor for St. John and will spend the honeymoon in Nova Scotia.
