Rev. Mr. McDonaid, of Fredericton, preached in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church here yesterday.

Captain and Mrs. John Orr and children returned Saturday from Boston (Mass.), where they spent the past few months.

Miss Caulie McInerney, who has been teaching in Sussex, came home Friday. Her school is closed owing to an epidemic of scarlet fever in the town.

Stephen Girvan, son of Samuel Girvan, of Beersville, who has been living the last few years in the Western States, is on a visit to relatives here.

John Callendar, of Callendar's Beach, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia is recovering. Dr. W. W. Doherty was the attending physician.

Dr. Girvan was called to Portage River last week to attend B. Mathinson of that place who had an eye seriously injured.

The funeral of Stephen Alexander, which took place Friday afternoon, was largely attended. Services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. A. D. Archbold, and interment was in St. Andrew's cemetery. The pall bearers were William Weston, William Jardine, Al. Fraser, William McLeaz, Alfred Beattle and Daniel McDonald.

Peter Campbell, of Ford's Mills, on the ton, William Jardine, Al. Fraser, William WesMalean, Alfred Beattle and Daniel McDonald.

Pater Campbell, of Ford's Mills, on the thinst, celebrated his 104th birthday and received many letters and eards of congratulation on that day, which he was able to read without the use of glasses. Mr. Campbell has just recovered from a spell of sickness, previous to which he was active and able to work every day. His favorite occupation was the making of shingles by hand, which trade he followed. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Heskett, of Pinseling, are receiving congratulations on the trival of a daughter.

Mrs. Angus Warren, of Pine Ridge, is willing. Mrs. William Whitney.
