HON. DR. LANDRY'S BUDGET SPEECH

(Continued from page 1.) The province was getting much nearer the stumpage to which it was entitled than under the old regime. The fact that the amount of territorial revenue during the past year was $21,000 less than the previous year was explained to a large extent by the fact that a crown land sinking fund had been established in which amounts received were crown lands or crown land rights were sold outright, were placed, so that the ordinary revenue was shorter by those amounts which last year totalled upwards of $10,000.

WEDDINGS. Wednesday, March 11. A wedding of special interest to friends both in the city and outside, took place last evening at 6:30 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Max Ross, 115 Gormal street, when their only daughter, Mariana, became the bride of Henry Besman, a prominent young business man of Sackville. The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her father, and looked charming in a handsome gown of white Duchesse satin with veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations.
