MELBOURNE

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church was held in the Sunday School room and was well attended. The yearly report was given, showing the best year in the history of the society, which was organized forty years ago. Much credit for the successful year is due to the enthusiastic president, Mrs. Gilbert McLean. The following officers were elected for the coming year:—President, Mrs. Gilbert McLean; 1st vice-president, Mrs. Ed. Galbraith; secretary, Miss Robinson; treasurer, Miss Cornelle; floral committee—Mrs. Geo. Richards, Mrs. Geo. Sponenburg; visiting committee—Mrs. J. Scott, Mrs. Geo. Beattie, Mrs. Ed. Galbraith, Mrs. Geo. Sponenburg; decorating committee—Laura Collier, Blanche Hardy, Phyllis Bees.

Brown, Mrs. George Richards, Mrs. Norman Meek, Mrs. Ted Hager, Mrs. George Beattie. Rev. W. W. Shoup spoke on "Mothers" at the morning service in the church, and special music was given by the choir assisted by Mrs. Archie Stevenson.

Mother's Day was observed in the Presbyterian church. At the morning service the mothers formed the choir and gave music suitable for the occasion. The pastor, Rev. G. W. Oliver, spoke appropriately.

Union services were held Sunday evening in the Methodist church, with a large attendance. Rev. W. W. Shoup preached his farewell sermon and will leave for his home in Florida this week. Mr. Andrew Boa, a young man of the London Conference, who is home from college, will supply until July 1st. Subject to the approval of the stationing committee it is expected that Rev. Morley Culling will then have charge of the Methodist work here.

No need to suffer with corns, or to run the risk of paring them. Remove them surely and painlessly with Holloway's Corn Remover.

APPIN

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid of the Appin Methodist church was held at the home of Mrs. Wilfred Laughton recently. Despite bad weather there was a large attendance. The yearly reports were presented and proved to be very interesting, and the members were highly gratified with the success of the year's work. The pastor, Rev. M. C. Parr, presided during the election, which resulted as follows:—Honorary president, Mrs. James Macle; president, Mrs. L. H. Payne; 1st vice-president, Mrs. T. H. Brownlee; chaplain, Mrs. Frank Pole; assistant chaplain, Mrs. Dan McDonald; financial secretary, Mrs. J. Lotan; secretary-treasurer, Miss Helen Macle; floral committee, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Watterworth. Following election of officers, work for the ensuing year was discussed, and it was decided to hold a bazaar in the fall. Light refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. W. and Mrs. Ed. Laughton, at the conclusion of the meeting.

Mother's Day was fittingly observed in the Methodist church here on Sunday. The Sunday School in the morning was taken charge of entirely by the mothers and girls. At the close of the lesson period all the mothers were requested to sit together and a splendid appropriate program was given, after which all mothers were presented with a bouquet of flowers tied with white ribbon. In the evening large congregations listened to a fine sermon by the pastor on "Motherhood as a Vocation." The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, and special music by the choir was much appreciated. Next Sunday will be observed as Father's Day.

An invitation from the Glencoe League to the Appin League was accepted last Monday, when over 30 young people motored to Glencoe and put on a program at the League there. After the program the young people of the Glencoe League entertained the visitors to a social time and lunch was served.

Inspector Sexton of Strathroy, visited S. S. No. 17 school on Thursday last.

An Oil of Merit.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil is not a jumble of medicinal substances thrown together and pushed by advertising, but the result of the careful investigation of the healing qualities of certain oils as applied to the human body. It is a rare combination and it won and kept public favor from the first. A trial of it will carry conviction to any who doubt its power to repair and heal.

EKFRID STATION

Mother's Day was well observed in the Sunday School here.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Eaton spent Sunday with friends in Dunwich.

Miss Vera Beale is visiting in London.

Mildred Beales is recovering after an attack of measles.

Miss Ella Lilly is visiting with Mrs. Alvin Lilly.

The regular meeting of the Eureka Community Club was held at the home of Mrs. D. J. McLean Thursday afternoon, May 8, and in spite of the inclement weather there was a fair attendance of ladies. The president was in the chair and conducted the usual routine business. Many excellent suggestions were given on "The necessity of having a hobby," by Mrs. R. P. Eaton. The variety of fancywork, as demonstrated by Mrs. D. A. Campbell, was beautiful. Miss Carrie McLean gave a recitation entitled "The Cow," and the humorous reading by Mrs. W. P. Cornell occasioned a hearty laugh. All took a great interest in the demonstration of the school books, under the supervision of Mrs. D. J. McLean. The subjects discussed by the ladies were "Teaching agriculture in the schools," "Recent O.E.A. convention in Toronto," "Consolidation of schools," and "Home work." The roll call was responded to by giving your special hobby. On Thursday, June 6, the ladies will meet at the home of Mrs. Wm. Kirkwood.

Perhaps they may yet find a certain missing $15,000 cheque in King Tut's tomb.—Toronto Telegram.

Wants to Be Serious

Ben Turpin, famous comedian, inset, and the Ste. Anne Basilica now in course of erection.

YES! Ben Turpin is permanently cross-eyed, though his feet are not the monstrosities they appear when made up for the screen. Quebecers who discovered this when he and Mrs. Turpin stayed at the Chateau Frontenac recently were also surprised to find them a most retiring, modest, quietly dressed and devoted couple, quite unlike the movie people one imagines.

The manner in which Mr. Turpin has risen supremely over the handicap of those famous eyes is an example of the courageous turning of an impediment to good account. "I love serious acting," said Mr. Turpin when interviewed on the Canadian Pacific en route to Montreal, "and long to play tragic roles, but, of course, I haven't the looks. So I do the next best thing—I make people laugh. Moreover, it's a pretty hard job being funny all the time. Often I feel more like crying. But I've got to make 'em laugh or my head will be chopped off."

Ben is an American of old stock but Mrs. Turpin is a French Canadian. Hence this was not by any means the first visit of the comedian and his wife to Quebec, but the trip on this recent occasion was somewhat in the nature of a pilgrimage from Los Angeles to the Shrine of Ste. Anne de Beaupre.

Ste. Anne de Beaupre will again this year, be the Mecca of thousands of pilgrimages. The new Basilica, work on which is being hurried as much as possible will not be ready for occupation for some two or three years yet, but the little wooden church which, since fire destroyed the old Basilica, has housed the shrine, is serving a useful purpose and this summer will no doubt see many sticks and crates added to the pile within its doors.
