THE RETURNED MISSIONARIES.—We have not been favored with direct communications with reference to the return of Mr. and Mrs. McLaurin, Miss Frith, and Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson, of the Maritime Board. We are glad, however, to report the safe arrival of Miss Frith at West Winchester and of the McLaurins at Woodstock.

We wish to call attention to Miss Green's communication published in another column. Our readers will unite with the Montreal Board in their regret that Miss Muir has been temporarily laid aside from active service, in their sympathy for her in her affliction, and in earnest prayer for early and complete restoration. Miss Muir has been since the inauguration of our Women's work one of the most active and efficient workers, and it will be a great trial to her as well as a serious loss to missions, if she should be long detained from the work that she loves.

ARREARAGES.—As it is necessary for us to revise our subscription list thoroughly every year, we request all our readers who are in arrears to renew at once. We shall be obliged to strike off the names of all whose labels do not read, '87. If any have failed to receive due credit for remittances, they may have made they will confer a favor by notifying us at once. If there are any in arrears who wish to discontinue, they should notify us of the fact and remit what is due to date.

ANOTHER NEW MISSIONARY.—The appeals for recruits for the foreign field have been responded to in a way that will rejoice the hearts of those who are interested in missions. Several excellent young ladies have signified their willingness to go to India, but are not ready for immediate service; but now one who is thought to be eminently qualified in mind and in heart, and who has been for a long time profoundly interested in missions, has offered herself for immediate service, and will doubtless go out in the early autumn along with Messrs. Davis and Laflamme. The new missionary is Miss Isabella Alexander, daughter of Rev. John Alexander, of Toronto. She is already known and beloved by many of our readers, and we trust that this will be true of many more before she goes to her work.

Out and Into.

"He brought us out, that he might bring us in"—Deut. vi. 23.

Out of the distance and darkness so deep,
Out of the settled and perilous sleep,
Out of the region and shadow of death,
Out of its foul and pestilent breath,
Out of the bondage and wearing chains,
Out of companionship ever with stains—

Into the light and glory of God,
Into the Holiest made clean by blood;
Into His arms, the embrace and the kiss—
Into the scene of ineffable bliss,
Into the quiet and infinite calm,
Into the peace of the song and the psalm.

Wonderful love, that has wrought all for me!
Wonderful work, that has thus set me free!
Wonderful ground upon which I have come!
Wonderful tenderness, welcoming home!

Out of the horror of being alone,
Out, and forever, of being my own,
Out of the bitterness, madness and strife,
Out of myself and all I called "life,"
Out of the hardness of heart and of will,
Out of the longing that nothing could fill.

Into communion with Father and Son,
Into the sharing of all that Christ won,
Into the ecstasies, full to the brim,
Into the having of all things with Him—
Into Christ Jesus, there ever to dwell,
Into more blessings than tongue can e'er tell.

Wonderful Person, whose face I'll behold!
Wonderful story, there all to be told!
Wonderful! all the dread way that He trod—
Wonderful end—He brought me to God!

Sketches of the Modern Missionary Movement—No. 7.

BY MRS. J. C. YULE.

Not far from the time that Morrison began his work in China, and while Henry Martyn was becoming familiarized with his routine or duties at Dinapore, God put it into the heart of one who had spent several years abroad,
