

WORDS OF WISDOM.

THE more you say, the less people remember.

THE plant of happiness cannot thrive without the air of cheerfulness.

THE innocence of the intention abates nothing of the mischief of the example.

MAKE friends with your creditors, if you can, but never make a creditor of your friend.

THE harvest gathered in the fields of the past is to be brought home for the use of the present.

DISEASES OF THE SKIN.—Most diseases of the skin arise from bad blood and lack of cleanliness, except w'en caused by grubs or insects.

MANY people mistake stubbornness for bravery, meanness for economy, and vileness for wit.

PROMISES made in time of affliction require a better memory than people commonly possess.

THE misery of illness is nearly manifest in high life as in the rags and filth of extreme poverty.

A TRUE BALSAM.—DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY is truly a balsam. It contains the balsamic principle of the Wild Cherry, the balsamic properties of tar and of pine.

DEPRIVE the people of the means of proper subsistence, and you enslave and destroy the nation.

CHEERFULNESS is an excellent wearing quality. It has been called the bright weather of the heart.

WE should be as cheerful of our words as of our actions, and as far from speaking ill as from doing ill.

SWELLED NECK.—Mrs. Henry Dobbs, of Berridale, Parry Sound, testifies to a prompt cure of enlarged glands of the neck and sore throat by the internal and external use of Haggard's Yellow Oil.

FOR a good currency the people are being encouraged to sacrifice their goods, their liberties, their children and themselves.

GOLD and silver would be better as mere medals of commerce than as fluctuating legal tenders in the hands of speculators.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate.

As a Refrigerant Drink in Fevers.

DR. C. H. S. DAVIS, Meriden, Conn., says: "I have used it as a pleasant and cooling drink in fevers, and have been very much pleased with it."

GIVE no quarter to those vices which are of thine inward family, and, having a root in temper, plead a right and propriety in thee.

To avenge one's self is to confess that one has been wounded; but it is not the part of a noble mind to be wounded by an injury.

Snug Little Fortunes

may be had by all who are sufficiently intelligent and enterprising to embrace the opportunities which occasionally are offered them.

WHO is wise? He that learns from every one. Who is powerful? He that governs his passions. Who is rich? He that is content.

THOSE that would be safe have need to be suspicious of the tempter. The garrison that sounds a parley is not far from being surrendered.

Nervous Debilitated Men

You are allowed a free trial of thirty days of the use of Dr. Dye's Celebrated Voltaic Belt with Electric Suspensory Appliances, for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Debility, loss of Vitality and Manhood, and all kindred troubles.

HE who expresses in his conduct justice and charity accomplishes the most beautiful works; the good man is, in his way, the greatest of all artists.

PUBLIC opinion is a weak tyrant compared with our own private opinion; what a man thinks of himself, that is which determines or rather indicates his fate.

THE best Ankle Boot and Collar Pads are made of zinc and leather. Try them.

IT does us good to admire what is good and beautiful; but it does us infinitely more good to love it. We grow like what we admire, but we become one with what we love.

IS EVERYBODY DRUNK?

Among the many stories Lincoln used to relate was the following: Trudging along a lonely road one morning on my way to the county seat, Judge ——— overtook me with his waggon and invited me to a seat.

We had not gone far before the waggon began to wobble. Said I: "Judge, I think your coachman has taken a drop too much."

Putting his head out of the window, the judge shouted: "Why, you infernal scoundrel, you are drunk!"

Turning round with great gravity, the coachman said: "Be dad! but that's the fir's rightful s'cision your Honour's giv'n 'n twel' mont!"

If people knew the facts they would be surprised to learn how many people reel in the streets who never "drink a drop." They are the victims of sleeplessness, of drowsy days, of apoplectic tendencies, whose blood is set on fire by uric acid.

Some twelve months since Mr. Geo. Mann, so well and favourably known in connection with the Tea trade in this city, was appointed Sole Dominion Agent for the Himalayan Tea Association of India.

THE foundation of good labour in any sphere is a good man, and all that is done to give breadth, depth and fulness to him will react in ultimate improvement upon his work.

A REMARKABLE SHOWING.
