

85

ANNO VICESIMO

And it is ordered, that all and every ferryman or ferrymen do keep a sufficient number of good boats, canoes (or bacques where necessary) capable of passing foot passengers, horses and caleches in safety and with speed; and they are hereby strictly required to give constant attendance, that no person demanding passage may be delayed under a penalty of ten shillings.

By the Court,

DAVID LYND, C. P.

F I N I S.