INTRAMURAL GRAPPLERS MAY NOT BE STYLISH
... but they're as enthusiastic as their Golden Bear counterparts

Bears trounced by Sled-dogs

Local boys out grunt-and-groaned

The University of Saskatchewan grapplers are still the class of the west. Last weekend the Bear wrestlers were given a good beating by the Huskie squad, 27-8, and lost captain Bill Smith and Dave Duniec for the rest of the season with pulled achilles tendons.

During the meet the Golden Bears took their second victory against an American school in as many weeks. This time it was Bottineau College of North Dakota that went down, 27-9. The Saskatchewan Winter Games team dropped a 30-6 decision to the Bears.

The Bears finished second in the meet. Coach Bruce Switzer was pleased with the effort against the Americans but felt the Bears had a let-down in their match with the Huskies.

BOYS CARELESS

"We lost three or four matches we probably won't lose in the finals. The boys got careless and ended up on their backs. Bill Jensen was up 8-0 when he made one mistake and got pinned," said Switzer.

Russ Rozylo, 145 lbs., was the top Bear wrestler in the weekend action winning two matches by pins and one by a draw. 177-pound Bob Ramsum was next in line with two pins and a draw.

Bob Smith, 123 lbs., won one and lost two; Bill Smith, 130 lbs., won two and lost one; Bill Jensen won one and lost one; Dave Duniec, 152 lbs., was pinned by his Huskie opponent but won his other two matches.

Tom Taylor, 167 lbs., lost two of his three matches; John Marchand, 191 lbs., lost one of three; and heavyweight Chuck Olhson won one and lost one.

CALGARY MEET

Tomorrow afternoon finds the Bears down in Calgary for another meet. The weekend after that three of the Bears travel to Quebec for the Winter Games. Feb. 27 and 28, the WCIAA finals will be held here in the main gym.

Coach Switzer is still optimistic about the Bears' chances in the finals: "We'll give a good account of ourselves. We can beat UBC, but Saskatchewan is a different matter. Calgary is an unknown quality. We'll find out how strong they are tomorrow."

Lapinette

the painless advertisement

Lapinette placidly points to her porcelain pig.

Lapinette, now miles from padsville, learns a sad lesson in the reliability of both mechanical and economic devices.

Lapinette now knows the security of money in the bank and her own, personal cheques.

When disaster strikes, your friendly bank is as close as your cheque book. which is a problem for this kid...

did we ever tell you the story of how lapinette came to deal with the campusbank in the first place?

Well, once upon a time, lappy used to keep her cash in a pig. now this pig was a porcelain pig. you know the type: kind of acceptable in an aesthetic way, but not overly active oinkwise.

one day, whilst lappy was dragracing a chap with her Honda, she broke a sprocket.

now, sprockets aren't hard to find, but lap had left her pig in her pad.

ever try to cash a cheque drawn on a piggybank?

walking to class, she passed the campusbank, which was near the campus, naturally.

why not? she mused bemusedly.

what service! how kind! she was delighted. and her very own personal chequeing account chequebook!

but even our bank can't think of everything.

she broke another sprocket dragracing yesterday.

but her chequebook was safe and sound in the pig.
