

The Mauve Bat.
A SPECIAL MESSAGE...

Dear reader,
It has been pointed out to me, by someone that I enjoy spending time with, that the last Mauve Bat cartoon was illogical. For, all that Wanda would have to do to overcome her limited vision, would be to move her head, allowing her to see the faces of others. I would like to justify Wanda's dilemma by stating that her problem is psychological. Wanda, subconsciously, has never wanted to see the face of anyone, and so, when the face of whoever comes too close to her field of vision, she looks elsewhere.

Thank you
