"THE UNION JACK FOREVER"

By R. M. R.
B.A., LL.B., B.C.L., (Oxon.)

"There will always be an England"
No matter what the Hun may do,
If it were not for doughty England
The whole world would be askew.

"There will always be an England"
Scotland, Wales and Ireland, too;
Thank God for good old England,
For keeping us all loyal and true.

"There will always be an England"
For God Almighty'll see her through,
God bless beloved England,
Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.
