

Whiting & Styers in contravention of the instructions conveyed to you in letter of 24th February 1880.

(3) I have to request that you will explain why in the former case you neglected your instructions, and in the latter exceeded them.

be good enough to transmit with the least possible delay the detailed accounts of the merchants (acknowledged by the Indians) from which you prepared your Statement of the Indian indebtedness (5) You will also remit at once to the Department the undisbursed balance of the collections now in your hands.

(6) In future you will refund to the Department all further
