

- Q. Were you opposite the rear of the chevrolet car?
- A. No, sir.
- Q. You stood opposite the chevrolet car. The front, centre or rear?
- A. Approximately the centre, sir.
- Q. Would you point out the Court <sup>to</sup> on the diagram where you were?
- A. (witness indicates on diagram)
- Q. You stated that you started across the street at a point prior to where McIntyre crossed the street.
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. There were no civilians or anybody there?
- A. No, sir.
- Q. Nobody there at all?
- A. No, sir.
- Q. A car travelling up a cobble stone road makes considerable noise, does it not? The beating of the tyres on the cobbles?
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. A car travelling on a cobble stone road seems as if it is going a great deal faster than on pavement.
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. How could you judge the speed of that car?
- A. I used to be a driver at GMEH. Because of the noise and when I first saw it and the short period of time it took until it was up to where I was in the road.
- Q. When the car passed, you saw two people in the front seat?
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. Did you see any officers in the rear seat?
- A. I did not see anyone in the rear seat, sir.
- Q. You saw two people in the front seat?
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. You stated previously you did not see where the car went.
- A. Only the direction, sir.
- Q. You could not see up the road if the taillights were on.
- A. I just saw it go by.
- Q. Could you see 350 yards that night? Could you see a ~~XXXX~~ red lights 350 yards?
- A. You could, but I didn't see it sir.