Why Wait?

EVERYONE who has a loved one serving "out there"—father, husband, son, brother, sister, or perhaps a sweetheart—will want a Canadian Service Pin or Service Flag—perhaps both.

A Service Pin worn on the waist or coat, a Service Flag hung in the home, class room, etc., are symbols of service. They are expressive of honor and appreciation of the loved one's sacrifice and service. Each is a silent tribute.

SEND for them now:

WHY WAIT?

SERVICE PINS are beautifully simple. The border is red—blue Maple leaves on the white centre indicate the number of loved ones on active service.

No. 740—High quality enamelled gold plate, as illustrated. Size, 9/16 x 5/16 inch. 1, 2, and 3 leaves. Price, 25c. each.

No. 741—Same as above in sterling silver. 50c. each.

No. 750—Same quality as No. 740, but larger and with rounded corners. A most attractive pin. 1, 2, 3, and 4 leaves. Price, 50c. each.

No. 751—Same size as No. 750, but sterling silver instead of gold plate. A truly beautiful, fine quality pin. 1, 2, 3, and 4 leaves. Price, 75c. each.

CANADIAN SERVICE FLAG

LIKE the Service Pin, the Service Flag is most attractive. The broad border is red, blue Maple leaves on the white centre indicate the number of men or women on active service for Canada and the Empire.

Sunday Schools, Churches, Young People's Societies, Bible Classes, and other organizations will honor their members who are in khaki by displaying a Service Flag, with a Maple Leaf for each member serving.
