Sales this month so far have been: To I. L. Howlett, Keldon, a pair of ten-months-old sows; to J. Coleman, a young stock boar; to H. Able, Troy, a young boar. Early buyers get the choice. ELMHURST BERKSHIRES AND SHORTHORNS.

A short distance from Cainsville Station, on the C. P. R. and G. T. R., is the well-equipped stock farm, "Elmhurst," the property of Mr. H. M. Vanderlip, breeder of Large English bacon-type Berkshire hogs and Scotch Shorthorn cattle. Mr. Vanderlip is one of the leading breeders of pure-bred stock in Ontario, as well as one of the most successful, from the fact that he uses none but the best procurable for breeding purposes. His herd of Berkshires stand second to none in the country. The bulk of the brood sows, as well as the main stock boar, are imported, and it is safe to say that no better representatives of the breed can be found. The main stock boar is Elmhurst's Compton Duke (imp.). He belongs to the noted Compton strain, better than which there is none. His sire was a noted show hog, and won at the leading shows in England in 1903, and his grandsire, Baron Kitchener, was probably the most noted Berkshire boar in England, having won the 100-guinea prize at the Royal Show, and his dam and granddam were equally noted show sows. Second in service is Elmhurst Swell, by the great show hog, King of the Castle (imp.), winners of first prize at the Bath & West of England Show in 1904, dam Polgate Desire (imp.), one of the best sows ever imported. Among the brood sows is the grand good one, Compton Dawn 2nd (imp.), a daughter of the great sow, Compton Dawn, pronounced to be the best sow in England in 1904, having won over all comers at nearly all the leading shows. She was sired by Polgate Dragon, one of the most noted sires in England. In the herd are four of her daughters, an ideal lot, one of which has a litter, the others bred to farrow in March. Another of the good sows is Flashlight (imp.), a sow of remarkable length and quality; she has a grand litter by the main stock boar. Still another is Imp. Queen Bee, an ideal in type, with great size, a rare nice sow. Then there are several others bred from imported stock, the whole making an aggregation of brood sows that have few, if any, equals on any one farm. For sale are young sows of all ages—some bred, some ready to breed, and younger ones—bred from imported sire and dam, and others out of Canadian-bred dams. So with boars, there are a number of all ages, bred the same as the sows. Pairs can be supplied not akin, and everything guaranteed as represented. The Shorthorns represent such choice strains as the Augustas and Estelles. The stock bull is Prince of Stars 49804, by Chief of Stars (imp.), a son of the prince of sires, Star of the Morning, dam by Imp. Blue Ribbon, granddam Estelle (imp.), by Challenger, great-granddam by Lord Ythan, he out of a daughter of Star of the Morning, thus giving Prince of Stars a double cross of the great Star of the Morning; his type, character and general make-up leaves little to be desired, and, owing to his heifers now coming on, he is for sale at a price that should soon pick him up. To succeed him is Royal Ythan, by Imp. Brave Ythan, by Spicy Baron, by Spicy Robin, the sire of the Toronto champion, Spicy Marquis, dam Imp. Rustic Beauty, by the C. Clipper bull, Clan Alpine. Among the several good, thick cows is Imp. Eliza, by Archer, and her daughter, Eliza 2nd, by Imp. Scottish Pride. Another is the cow, Estelle of Sylvan, dam of the young stock bull; she has now a grand heifer calf. Crystal Star is a daughter of Estelle, that has a four-months-old bull calf, by the stock bull, Write Mr. Vanderlip, to Cainsville P. O., Ont., or call and see his stock.
