FRED. W. PAGE SUPERINTENDENT.

There was something in Hughie's tone that startled the old man. He glanced at Hughie's face.

"What am I saying?" he cried. "It is of myself I am thinking, boy, and of no minister or minister's son."

But Hughie stood looking at him, his face showing his terrible anxiety. God and sin were vivid realities to him.

"Yes, yes," said the old man to himself, "it is a great gospel. 'As far as the east is distant from the west.' And plenteous redemption is ever found with him."

"But, do you think," said Hughie, in a low voice, "God will tell all our sins? Will he make them known?"

"God forbid!" cried the old man. "And their sins, and their iniquities will I remember no more." The depths of the sea. No, no, boy, he will surely forget, and he will not be proclaiming them.

It was a strange picture. The old man leaning upon the top of his hoe looking over at the lad, the gleam of his face irradiated with a momentary gleam of hope, and the boy looking back at him with almost breathless eagerness.

"It would be great," said Hughie, at last, "if he would forget."

"Yes," said the old man, the gleam in his face growing brighter, "If we confess our sins he is faithful and just to forgive us, and forgiving with him is forgetting. Ah, yes, it is a great gospel," he continued, and standing there he lifted up his hand and broke into a kind of chant in Gaelic, of which Hughie could catch no meaning, but the exalted look on the old man's face was translation enough.

"Must we always tell?" said Hughie, after the old man had ceased.

"What are you saying, laddie?"

"I say must we always tell our sins— I mean to people?"

The old man thought a moment. "It is not always good to be talking about our sins to people. That is for God to hear. But we must be ready to make right what is wrong."

"Yes, yes," said Hughie, eagerly, "of course one would be glad to do that."

The old man gave him one keen glance and began hoeing again.

"Ye'd better be asking ye're mother about that, She will know."

"No, no," said Hughie, "I can't."

The old man paused in his work, looked at the boy for a moment or two, and then went on working again.

"Speak to my woman," he said, after a few strokes of his hoe. "She's a wonderful wise woman." And Hughie wished that he had dared.

During the days of the planting they became great friends, and to their mutual

Every Home Needs Good Music and when you have an offer of abundance of good music, combined with clean, wholesome entertainment, at only a fraction of its worth, every man owes it to his family to take advantage of such a chance. Think of a concert every evening right in your own home. Think of yourself, too, comfortably settled in your easy chair, with your pipe, after a hard day's work, listening to the most beautiful Music by famous Bands and Orchestras, the sweetest singers, the funniest talkers and entertainers. Why you wouldn't sell it for $25.00 an hour after it had been in the house.

THING FOR WINTER

SEND ONLY $1.00

as a guarantee of good faith and we'll ship to your Express Office this Grand Concert Phonograph Outfit, consisting of one beautiful Singing and Playing Machine worth $16.00, ten 50c Records, Needle, Box 25c., and 100 Records 10c.—total value $20.25. When it arrives call and examine it thoroughly, play all the Records, make sure it comes up to everything we say about it in this advertisement, then, when thoroughly satisfied, pay the Express Agent the real balance, $7.95, and Express Charges. On the $16.00, but only $7.95, other hand, if the Outfit does not come up to your highest expectations, simply have it returned to us and we'll pay the charges both ways and refund your dollar. Read all about of this wonderful offer below.

We really can't make this advertisement too strong nor say too much in praise of this Grand Concert Phonograph Outfit. It is positively worth $20.25. The instrument itself is thoroughly up-to-date, with large size, beautifully toned, concert size Sound Box, handsome Cabinet highly polished to a fine piano finish, fine gold and silver trimmings, and large Improved shaped Horn, through which the words and music issue, loud, clear, distinct and as sweet as a bell, talks, sings and plays much plainer than lots sold for $20.00. They are simply wonderful, they are so clear, distinct and natural. We mention a few titles in the illustration, which, perhaps, mightn't be what you would like but we have thousands of others. We can give you almost anything in Bands, Orchestras, Chimes, Duets, Quartets, Sacred Music, Selections on any instrument, every description of Dance Music, Sad, Comic, Sentimental and Coon Songs, all the latest popular music and all the old favorites as well. You can send for our Catalogues if you would like to make your own selections, but it will save-time if you will tell us what you like and let us choose for you. There is really no minute to lose. We have only a few dozen Outfits to offer at this price and we fully expect to sell every one the first time this advertisement appears. You can order as many Records, besides the ten, as you like, and we'll send all we can and charge you only 25c each for the additional ones. Now understand we are not offering you any bargain stock but the latest up-to-date goods, and at the lowest prices ever approached in the Talking Machine business before. We have good reasons for making this big slump in prices, but all that interests you is that we are offering a few dozen of the best Home Entertaining Outfits—Instruments, Records and everything complete—for about one-third its value. It would be a pity to miss it. We strongly advise you to write at once. Remember you run no risk. Read our straightforward offer above.
