

II. And be it further enacted, That the said several and respective sums of money, and every part thereof, shall be paid to the several and respective persons who shall actually work and labour in making, completing and repairing the said several Roads and Bridges, and in improving the navigation of the said river Saint John and its branches, or in furnishing materials therefore at the most reasonable rates that such labour and materials can be procured; and that the several and respective persons who shall be entrusted with the expenditure of the said several and respective sums, shall keep an exact account of the expenditure thereof, and shall produce receipts in writing from the several and respective persons to whom any part of the said money shall be paid, as vouchers for such payments, and shall render an account thereof upon oath, (which oath any Justice of the Peace in the several and respective Counties is hereby authorized to administer,) to be transmitted to the office of the Secretary of the Province, for the inspection and examination of the General Assembly at their next Session. And such Commissioners or persons entrusted with the expenditure of the said several and respective sums of money shall stand charged and chargeable with all sums of money entrusted to them, and not accounted for as aforesaid; and shall repay the same into the Province Treasury.

Money to be paid to the persons who labour,
Commissioners to account.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners or persons entrusted with the expenditure of the said several and respective sums of money, shall, for their time and trouble respecting the same, (in case they shall find it necessary and expedient,) render an account thereof at the next Session of the General Assembly to be then provided for, in case the same shall appear just and equitable: Provided always, That such of the said persons who shall actually work and labor upon the said Roads and Bridges as aforesaid, shall retain out of the said sums so entrusted to them respectively, a reasonable compensation for such actual work and labour.

Commissioners to render an account for their time and trouble,
Commissioners who work may retain money for their labour.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all the before mentioned several sums of money shall be paid by the Treasurer by warrant of His Honor the PRESIDENT or Commander-in-Chief for the time being, by and with the advice and consent of His MAJESTY'S Council, out of the monies now in the Treasury, or as payments may be made at the same, and not otherwise.

Money to be paid by warrant.
