

Sensational Profits In Fox Farming

In Prince Edward Island, millions of dollars have been added to the wealth of the people, through the fox-breeding industry.

Three years ago there was not one resident of the Island whose entire possessions reached half a million dollars. Now several fox-breeders are in that class, whilst two at least have passed the million dollar mark.

Others have incomes from $10,000 to $20,000 per year from their fox investments, and thousands of small shareholders are receiving from 25 p.c. to 200 p.c. yearly on investments ranging from $100 to $1,000.

Newfoundland Investors' Opportunity

Newfoundland possesses natural facilities for fox-breeding far better than those of Prince Edward Island. The record of profits made there can easily be duplicated, if not exceeded, here.

Whilst very few people can own a fox farm, any one can own shares in a duly incorporated fox company and thus share in the profits of the most sensational money-making business of the present day.

The Terra Nova Silver Black Fox Co., Ltd.

Offers a very attractive proposition to investors. Its share is selling at par, $50, and may be paid for in four monthly calls of 25 p.c. each. The Directors of this Co. are men of high standing, in whose hands the interests of shareholders will be carefully looked after.

The ranch will be located at the mouth of the River Exploits, in the best wild fox territory in Newfoundland, where suitable food for the foxes can be had at a minimum cost all the year round.

Its initial equipment of 22 foxes (bought for $12,000) alone would be sufficient to earn handsome dividends on the entire issue of $40,000. In addition to these, however, three pairs of first class silver foxes will be purchased, and it is safe to predict that 100 p.c. will be paid to the shareholders in 1915.

Significant Points To Remember

- (1) Dividends as high as 1800 p.c. have been paid by a fox company in a single year.
- (2) The average dividend of P.E.I. Companies in 1913 was over 100 p.c.
- (3) Three ranches established in Newfoundland last year all earned over 100 p.c.
- (4) No record exists of any fox company having failed, since the commencement of the industry over 20 years ago.
- (5) The total supply of good live foxes, and of fox furs, is so inadequate to the demand, that present high prices and dividends will be maintained for many years.
- (6) Eventually the basis of profit must be the selling value of pelts. When this time comes the Terra Nova Co. will still be able to pay dividends of 20 p.c. or 25 p.c.

REGIME OF HUERTA WAS A TROUBLED ONE FOR HIS COUNTRY

Waded Through Blood to his Position as Dictator of the Mexican Republic and Has Had to Face All Kinds of Trouble—Place Finally Became Too Hot for Him—Text of His Resignation

Mexico City, July 18.—Victoriano Huerta took oath as Provisional President of Mexico on February 19, 1913, the day after A. L. Madero had been arrested at the National Palace. Three days later Madero and Maria Pino Suarez, Vice-President, were shot to death on their way to the penitentiary. The manner of their death has never been satisfactorily explained.

Bombastic Message

One of Huerta's first acts as Provisional President was to telegraph Wm. H. Taft, then President of the United States, the following message: "I have the honor to inform you that I have overthrown this government. The forces are with me, and from now on peace and prosperity will reign."

The Mexican Republic was at once plunged into civil war again, notwithstanding the issuance by Huerta of a proclamation of general amnesty. The Sonora state congress officially repudiated the provisional government before Huerta had settled himself comfortably in the presidential chair.

Started a Mixup

Zapata the revolutionary leader to the south of the capital, after negotiating a few days with the new regime, went back to his guerilla campaign.

Salazar, one of the highest generals in the army denounced Huerta. Carranza, constitutionalist leader in Chihuahua, assailed him in a bitter statement made public at San Antonio.

Francisco Villa announced himself an adherent of Madero and joined the ranks of the north army.

Pascual Orozco of the clan of northern revolutionaries, was the lone notable figure among the disaffected who declared for the new government.

President Taft, nearing the end of his term, left to his successor the problem of adjusting the diplomatic relations with Mexico.

Huerta's Handicaps

Hampered at the outset of his administration by the refusal of the United States to recognize him, Huerta soon faced growing difficulties in raising funds to run his Government. His uneasy hold upon affairs was weakened by minor constitutionalist victories in the north and by recurring rumors of a break with Felix Diaz, nephew of Porfirio Diaz and Huerta's ally in the overthrow of Madero.

Arranged for Elections

On May 1st, Huerta announced that he would urge congress to call elections in October to jettison his successor. The congress selected October 26 as the date of election, and a decree to that effect was issued by Huerta on June 3rd.

Felix Diaz, who had announced himself as a candidate at presidency was sent to Japan on July 17.

Henry Lane Wilson, the American ambassador was recalled to Washington and Nelson O'Shaughnessy Charge D'Affaires was left in charge of United States interests in Mexico.

Huerta Got Sane

Early in August it became known that President Wilson intended to send John Lind, former Governor of Minnesota to Mexico as his personal representative in an endeavor to arrange a basis for the Republic's peace. Huerta announced that he would not tolerate foreign interference. Nevertheless, Mr. Lind delivered his note from President Wilson. Huerta rejected all proposals made by the American Government, chief of which were the suggestions that he resign and that he be not a candidate on next election day. Relations between Mexico and the United States became acute.

Senator Spoke and

Huerta was attacked in the Mexican Senate on October 5th by Senator Dominguez who had the hardihood to speak what was in the minds of himself and some of his colleagues. Dominguez disappeared. The chamber of deputies adopted a resolution calling for an explanation. To this President Huerta's reply was dramatic and swift. He marched a column of troops to the deputies chamber, seized one hundred and ten of them and threw them into prison. Next he dissolved congress and took to himself the legislative authority, calling for the election of new members on October 26th.

In the election campaign certain influences close to the Dictator worked for his return to the Presidency with General Blanquet as his running mate.

Elections Faked

When it became certain that the elections had resulted in no constitutional choice on account of the failure of voters to get to the polls, the United States Government temporarily called on him to resign on November 12th Huerta refused to accede to the American demand for his resignation and John Lind left Mexico City for Vera Cruz. Meantime the United States dispatched warships to the Mexican coast and Americans continued to leave Mexico. Definite proposals were made by the United States to Carranza and his adherents. Several of the European Powers, notably Great Britain, Germany and France, gave strong support to the policy of the United States. The constitutionalists waxed stronger and continued their advance to the south. The situation became so critical that Great Britain, Germany, France, Spain and Japan ordered warships to Mexican waters.

Continued Fighting

Fighting continued at Tampico and many other centres, and Torreon was taken by the constitutionalists.

An embargo placed on the exportation of arms from the United States to Mexico was raised early in February of the present year. Then came the departure of John Lind from Vera Cruz and the arrest of a party of American bluejackets at Tampico, for which an apology and salute were demanded by the United States and refused by Huerta.

On April 12 bluejackets and marines were landed and occupied Vera Cruz in consequence of the reported arrival of a large consignment of arms and ammunition for Huerta.

Mediation Proposals

Shortly after a mediation proposed from Argentina, Brazil and Chile, was accepted and a conference ensued at Niagara Falls.

Meantime important cities fell into the constitutionalists hands and the victorious armies continued their march upon Mexico City, where rumors have been in circulation for many weeks of the approaching resignation of Huerta.

Huerta's Resignation

Mexico City, July 16.—The text of General Huerta's resignation follows: "Deputies and Senators—Public necessity admitted by the Chamber of Deputies, by the Senate, and the Supreme Court, called me to the Supreme Magistracy of the public."

Later, when in this same hall I had the honor of addressing you in compliance with the constitutional precept, I promised at all costs to bring about peace. Seventeen months have passed, and in that time I have formed an army with which to carry out that solemn promise.

Immense Difficulties

"You all know the immense difficulties which my Government has encountered owing to a scarcity of funds, as well as to the manifest and decided protection which a Great Power of this Continent has afforded to the rebels, so much so, that when the revolution had been broken up, seeing that its chief leaders were and continue to be divided, the Power in question sought a pretext to intervene directly in the conflict, and the result of this was the outrage committed at Vera Cruz by the American Fleet."

"Success was met as you know, in adjusting honorably through our delegates at Niagara Falls, the petty Tampico incident, but the revolution continued, with the support of whom we all know."

Word For Himself

"Yet, after the highly patriotic work achieved by our delegates at Niagara Falls, there are still some who say that I, come what may, seek my personal interest, and not that of the Republic, and, as I need to rebut this allegation with acts, I tender my formal resignation as president of the Republic."

"The National Congress must know that the Republic through its Government has labored in entire good faith and with the fullest energy, having succeeded in doing away with the party which in the United States calls itself Democratic, and having shown how the right should be defended."

Is More Explicit

"To be more explicit, I will say that the action of the Government of the Republic during its short life has dealt death blows to an unjust power. Later on, stronger workers will come using implements that undoubtedly will end that power which has done so much harm and committed so many outrages on this Continent."

"In conclusion I will say that I abandon the Presidency of the Republic, carrying with me the highest sum of human wealth; for I declare that I have arraigned at the bar of universal conscience the honor of a puritan, whom I, as a gentleman, challenge to wrest from me that possession."

"May God bless you and me."

A SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS MAN

Every successful business man can give reasons for his prosperity. Most essential to any success is a careful and ceaseless attention to details. Every well conducted office or store in the world finds that simple and effectual filing systems are an absolute necessity. No employer will waste his own time or allow waste with his staff by using old fashioned methods. The benefits derived from the time and money-saving system which "Globe-Wernicke" devices encourage are self-evident. Not a paper can go astray when the "Safeguard" method of this Company is used. And no matter how complicated your filing problem, no matter how peculiar, no matter how small or how large, the "Globe-Wernicke" can provide you with the equipment that will place every record at your finger tips. Why not investigate? Mr. Percie Johnson represents the "Globe" in Newfoundland.
