A SPLENDID OFFER We will mail the daily issue of The Mail and Advocate to any address in Newfoundland or Canada from now until the end of 1915 for the sum of $2.00.

We will mail the weekly issue of The Mail and Advocate to any address in Newfoundland or Canada from now until the end of 1915 for the small sum of Fifty Cents.

The weekly issue of The Mail and Advocate offers splendid opportunities to business men for advertising their goods as it is read by 50,000 persons every week.

The daily issue of The Mail and Advocate has the largest outport circulation by 100 per cent of any daily paper in the Colony. It has only been published nine months, yet its outport subscription list exceeds by 100 per cent. the circulation of any other daily paper.

The weekly issue of The Mail and Advocate has subscriptions all over the Colony and is the cheapest weekly paper issued in the Colony. We give our advertisers' good value for their money. They appreciate this fact and continue their patronage from year to year. Others should note this fact and advertise in the paper that is read by 50,000 persons.

LONDON BUSINESS GETS ROYAL REBUKE For Dismissing Employes

and then Contributing to Patriotic Fund

London, Nov. 2 .- One of London's great department stores has removed from its windows its royal patronage signs. This is said to be due to a royal rebuke. This store where Queen Alexandra has heretofore done her shopping sent a cheque for ten thousand pounds to the Prince of Wales fund. So large a donation might well be put to the credit of its advertising account in view of the publicity given it. However, the managers of the Wales Fund discovered that the store dismissed half of its staff, so that the donation came really not from the firm but from its discharged employees. Whereupon the cheque was sent back, and the royal patronage taken from the firm.

The problem in Britain is to avoid pauperizing the unemployed. The burden placed on private charity is all that it can stand. While some industries have received an artificial help others were forced to close. It is the wish of the royal family to induce employers to keep their business going, even at a loss, rather than discharge hands and soothe their conscience by giving to charity.

pieces.

ADVERTISE IN THE MAIL AND ADVOCATE FOR BEST RESULTS

KAISER HAS SET HIS MIND ONINVADING GREAT BRITAIN

THE MAIL AND ADVOCATE, ST. JOHN'S, NEWFOUNDLAND, NOVEMBER 5, 1914-2

And British Authorities, evidence is in support of the idea Firmly Believing That He that they have calculated upon a short war. Has Formulated Some If these men are not lunatics Plan to Carry out His De- they have some other plan for striking terror to the hearts of the people sire, Are Taking No of England. The attempt will be Chances-Precautions in made, however futile it may prove to London and Along the It is recalled by "Ex-Attache" in the Coast.

Pittsburg Despatch that the British Isles were wice invaded in the course

N a conversation with Miss Top- of the last war with France, but the ham, his daughter's English attacks have been almost forgotten, governess, the Kaiser spoke of because they failed so signally to he fact that for nearly nine hundred achieve their object.

ears there had been no invasion of In 1789 a French force numbering England, though every other country 14,000, under the command of General in Europe had been overrun by con- Hoche, on seventeen transports and juering armies. This explained to accompanied by seven battleships and nim the wonderful wealth of old Eng- three frigates, made a descent upon ish castle and country houses in Bantry Bay, in Ireland. .

By the time 800 men, under General reasures of art and ancient master-Humber had been disembarked, a Now he purposes to give the furious storm arose and the other transports and the attending war-

British Isles a taste of invasion, and, nowever impossible we may consider ships were driven back to France. The Frenchmen who had landed in invasion of England, it seems likey that steps to achieve the impossible were joined by 1,000 Irish rebels, and nave been taken with characteristic at Castlebar defeated a force of local Jerman thoroughness, and that the militia under Generals Lake and Hutattempt to fulfil the Kaiser's ambition chinson, capturing the town. vill be carried out with characteristic A fortnight later they were obliged to surrender to Lord Cornwallis at Prussian ruthlessness.

The British authorities are taking Ballinamuck. A Descent of Desperadoes. eriously the threat from across the Despite the inglorious termination hannel. While still relying on the leet to prevent any landing in force, of this invasion, another was underaken a few months later

The Sixth Annual Convention of the Supreme Council of the Fishermen's Protective Union of Newfoundland will be convened at Catalina on the morning of November 14th next. Every Local Council and District Council of the F.P.U. should endeavor to be represented. Every Chairman of a Local Council and all the Officers of District Councils are members of the Supreme Council and in event of such Officers not being able to attend, Councils may appoint a substitute.

By order of

W. F. COAKER,

President F.P.U

St. John's, Oct. 4th, 1914.

NOTICE

The Annual Meeting of the Shareholders of the Fishermen's Union Trading Co., Ltd., will be held at Catalina on the 16th day of November next.

By order of

W. W. HALFYARD, Secretary. St. John's, Oct. 1st, 1914.

The Annual Meeting of the Shareholders of the Union Publishing Co., Ltd., will be held at Catalina on the 16th day of November next. By order of

W. W. HALFYARD, Secretary. St. John's, Oct. 1st, 1914.

