HOUSEHOLD LINENS

Thursday is Thanksgiving Day, and you will need new Linens. This Linen Stock is always special, because the qualities are most carefully watched and no jute is allowed to enter here as substitute for the Irish Flax. These Linens will stand comparison, in fact when you compare them with others the better you will be able to appreciate these offerings.

Table Cloths

Table Cloths in great variety here—They portray poppies, Shamrock, wild roses, maiden hair fern, the polka dot with fancy borders, and the ivy leaf, the prices are from $1.50 to $4.50

Bleached Table Linen

Bleached Table Linen, 64 in. wide, in three patterns, the best value in the city, at per yard..... 50c
Bleached Table Linen, 64 in. wide, in three patterns, very special at per yard..... 70c

Table Napkins

The better you are as a judge of linens, the quicker you will be to take advantage of this—
We bought a large quantity of Napkins from a wholesaler who had more than he should handle, and we got a special price on them, they would cost you $1.75 per doz. elsewhere, but they're here at per doz..... $1.25

Lunch Cloths

Tray Cloths, Carvers, Centres, and Fancy Damask Towels, a complete assortment of these in all the newest designs.

THAMESVILLE.

Oct. 17.—Albert Lush, of the Columbia Handle Co., London, is spending a week at his home.
Miss Bertha Arnold has returned home after an extended visit to Detroit.
A number from here went to Ridgeway Monday night, to see "The American Girl."

Yesterday was the first day of the great Moravian fair. It is expected that the attendance on Thursday will be very large, it being a public holiday.
Wm. Gray, of London, was in town on Monday.
The directors of the East Kent Agricultural Society met in the town hall on Monday for the purpose of issuing cheques for prizes and to wind up affairs for the current year.

CHALLENGE DECLINED.

Sir Wilfrid Speaks to a Great Crowd But Makes No Reference to Mr. Cook.

Toronto, Oct. 17.—At the large meeting in Massey Hall, at night, however, Sir Wilfrid did not accept Mr. Cook's challenge. He confined himself to a general defence of the government's policy. The various Toronto candidates, and also Archie Campbell spoke first and then Sir Wilfrid came forward. He was given a rousing ovation, which lasted for several minutes, when he rose to speak. The band played "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." He said it was a question if the policy inaugurated four years ago should be continued. There was no irritating question before the electorate now, such as the school question four years ago. They had settled all questions by a general appeal to all the people alike. The Conservative party did not pursue such a course. The Liberal party was national; the Conservative sectional. He charged Hugh John Macdonald with swimming with the current in his policy on the tariff. No one could charge him (the speaker) with swimming with the current. The talk by the Conservatives of repealing the British preference unless we got something for it from Britain was a double policy. He had promised tariff reform, and they had introduced the British preference in preference to reducing the duties on all goods to all countries, the effect of which would be to reduce the duties on the goods of the British preference. The British preference has brought Canada closer to a better customer of Canada. A mutual British preference was not feasible while Canada maintained a protective policy. He hoped to see in time a commercial union policy put into effect within the empire. We were not ready for it yet. The present British preference was a step in that direction. The premier admitted he had hesitated to spend money to send the contingent without the authority of parliament. Could they blame him for that? He admitted that the appeal did not affect his own countrymen as it did the people of Ontario, but no one could deny they were all loyal British subjects.
The premier was followed by Sir Richard Cartwright and Mr. Fielding, both of whom were given a good reception. They dwelt on some length on the trade question.
The six ministers—Messrs. Fitzpatrick, Cartwright, Patterson, Sutherland, Mulock, and Fielding—spoke to the large audiences at the overflow meetings at the pavilion and Association Hall, which were attended by some 3,000 people.

BLENHEIM.

Oct. 17.—Mrs. E. I. Shaver is visiting in Detroit this week.
Quite a number of enthusiastic Liberals of Blenheim are going over to Wallaceburg Thursday to participate in the reception of their famous leader, Premier Laurier. They will be accompanied by the Blenheim Citizens' Band.

We are pleased to learn that Robt. Stevenson, who was severely injured on Friday last, on the fair grounds, is steadily improving. We hope to see him fully recovered in a short time. The Methodist people are preparing for a large crowd on Thursday, 23rd inst., being District Epworth League convention. A good time is anticipated.

The foundation of the new school house is nearly completed and the walls will be pushed along as rapidly as possible. Blenheim will have a model school house when on October 15th our enthusiastic sportsmen were out in the fields with dogs and guns, but with poor results, and as the day declined and evening shades gathered you could see them poking through dark alleys, making their way homeward, tired and dejected. Up to date we have not heard of any full bags being brought in.

The ducks are reported to be very plentiful at the Eau just now, and some of our boys have been fortunate in securing large bags.

Dr. Storey is improving and his many friends are pleased to see him about again.

DRESDEN.

Oct. 17.—At the residence of her son-in-law, Arthur Smith, Victoria avenue, Mrs. Thomas Hughes, widow of the late Rev. Dean Hughes, in her 84th year. The funeral will take place on Thursday next, at 2 p. m.
W. McVean left Monday for New York.
C. Watson, of Ridgetown, is in town. Walter Hughes, of Kalamazoo, is in town attending the funeral of his mother.
Mrs. Joseph Thompson and four children left for the Northwest yesterday to join her husband, and the rest of the family at Moosejaw.
The gypsies are having a lively time around here, trading horses.

WHAT PEOPLE SAY

Is Not What Makes a Remedy Valuable

Testimonials are good things and we are always glad to get them, but they don't make our remedy any better. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are good because they do good—because they "care."

Testimonials simply prove that the tablets have helped other people, but it's yourself you are most interested in, and whether they will cure you is the question.

It is easy to find out—try them. A full package costs but fifty cents at if they only help you a little bit. The chance is worth taking at the price.
We put it on that basis because you don't know about the tablets. If you knew as much about them as we do you would have complete confidence; this advertising would be unnecessary. We have seen them cure the worst cases of stomach trouble. Cases of long standing and obstinacy, cases that other medicines and even high priced doctors had failed to subdue. Here are some testimonials. If you care to read them we have thousands of them:

Rev. J. R. Hoag, of Wymore, Nebraska, writes: "For six years I have been troubled with dyspepsia. Last fall I became very much alarmed at some symptoms of heart trouble and came to believe that there was a syphilitic relation between the two diseases, or rather, that the stomach trouble was the cause of the heart disturbance. I hit upon Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets for a remedy, and in a few days I was able to eat three boxes, which lasted me three months and I can eat any kind of food I want and have a good vigorous appetite. Although I am seventy-seven years old, I now feel perfectly well and without being requested by any one I make this statement as a compliment to the virtues of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets."

Mrs. Lydia Bartram, of Assyria, Mich., writes: "I have suffered from stomach trouble for ten years and five different doctors gave me only temporary relief. A Mr. E. R. Page advised me to try Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and four boxes did me more permanent benefit than all the doctors' medicines that I have ever taken. We honestly believe that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the best medicine ever made for the cure of stomach trouble. Don't mistake our meaning. We don't claim them to cure everything but dyspepsia and stomach disorders. Just the one thing is what they are made for, but that one thing is the cause—the starting point of nearly all the sickness in the world. Use Stuart's Tablets regularly. Keep your stomach right, and you can never be sick."

The Ontario department of agriculture is that the recent sale of Ontario milk cattle held in British Columbia was an unqualified success. Seventeen head of cattle were disposed of and realized $225 more than was estimated. The Ayrshires and Shorthorns were in greatest demand.

Vapo-Cresoline quickly cures colds, coughs, sore throat, whooping cough and croup.

There is a greater demand in the country districts of Canada for green tea than black tea, Japan teas being used in the greater proportion. With black tea drinkers the better and purer teas of Ceylon and India have almost entirely displaced those of China but Japan tea drinkers have had to be content with the notoriously adulterated article, all Japan teas being more or less doctored with Prussian blue, as coloring, and other adulterants; this fact has been recognized but so long as there is no redress, toleration has been given.

But a strong and formidable rival to the Japanese product has appeared upon the scene in the form of the new natural Leaf Pure unadorned green tea of Ceylon and India, a tea that is cleanly prepared by modern machinery, instead of the dirty hand labor of the Japanese article, a tea, while of a light liquor, similar in flavor to Japan is infinitely more tasteful and delicious, and certainly one tea ever grown, therefore very economical in use. One trial will convert the most pronounced lover of Japan tea that ever lived.

The "SALADA" Tea Company, are now offering this new tea in their regulation sealed lead packets.

G. W. Cornell left for Wallaceburg, this morning, where he acts as judge on eight horses.

It is never too late to paper

The old idea that Springtime is the only time to do papering has been long ago exploded. People are awakening to the fact that the really proper time to paper is the fall of the year—that the house should be made bright and cheerful for the long winter evenings when so much time is spent indoors. Just now we are busy
