The Y. W. C. A., of Acadia College, gave a reception to the young ladies of the college, on Wednesday evening last.

Mrs T. A. Munro has our thanks for a copy of that inimitable daily, the Oleve-the college, on Wednesday evening last.

There has been quite a boom in ship-ping during the past week. A number of vessels have been here unloading, and the wharves have presented a scene of sticity.

There will no doubt be a large audience in College Hall this evening, to hear the opening address. Dr. Keirstead is a speaker that the public are always anxious to bear, and the eddress this evening will no doubt be an able one.

On Saturday lest Mr C. M. Yaughn brought into our office a number of hopparell apples of the crop of 1895. They were among a number that were overlooked in his celler. They were sound and firm and retained their flavor to a remarkable degree.
